BUSINESS EMBARRASSMENTS.

Some months ago many merchants and financiers were of the opinion that the Treasury Department, by maintaining the volume of the currency at a uniform degree of inflation, could prevent a fall in the nominal values of all kinds of goods and wares. The Secretary of the Treasury measured the functions and capabilities of the Department with much greater accuracy, and urged the speediest practicable return to specie payments as the surest and cheapest way out of the embarrassments with which business classes of all grades were threatened. He commenced contraction, designing to release many hundreds of millions of coin, and bring it into circulation. Prices ran down much faster than he reduced the amount of greenbacks, and much more rapidly than gold receded in market value. Indeed, in many lines values shrank below where they ever were before. It was plain, consequently, that other causes than contraction of the paper currency were in operation. This consideration, however, did not satisfy all who were feeling the uncomfortable pressure, and the Secretary, yielding to popular remonstrances, suspended the cancellation of legal tenders. Congress has enjoined this on him as a duty, or will in a few days. Still prices do not go up, or even cease, in many departments, to fall away. It is evident the Secretary can neither change nor control the laws of trade.

As one of the results of lessened values, many failures are occurring among traders. They cannot sell their stocks for anything like what they cost, and have not surplus capital enough to balance the shrinkage. The case of these worthy men is to be commiserated, though how it could be avoided we do not see. When prices went up traders made money, or seemed to make it, without peculiar intelligence or forethought. The swell carried them along, almost in spite of themselves. Upon the subsiding of the swell many find themselves badly or fatally damaged, through no fault of their own. They are victims of a movement surpassing human control.

The number of these failures is larger than is generally apprehended outside of commercial circles. Almost every considerable borough furnishes one or more of them, and the smaller cities a proportionate list. A few days ago, in one of the most prominent towns of ten or twelve thousand inhabitants, in an adjoining State, we heard of not less than five. In neither of these was improvidence or criminality suspected.

This condition of affairs admonishes to circumspection. Mercantile pursuits, at all times more perilous than most others, are now attended by peculiar hazards.

If specie payments could be promptly reached, that attainment would relieve large classes, because it would go far towards rectifying the existing discrepancy between the value of goods and the price of corn. But this attainment is not now apparently as near as it was a year ago. The losses incident to a return to specie seem to have been encountered, and yet the consummation is indefinitely postponed.

RECONSTRUCTION.

No doubt it is of high concernment to have the Union restored, so that all the States may once again hold their normal relations to each other and to the general government. But it is of yet higher consequence to have the Union so restored as to make sure that all the sacrifices incurred during the war were not in vain. Here all the rebels, and all the men who encouraged them to take up arms, insist not simply that no forfeitures shall be enforced, but that no guarantees shall be exacted for future good conduct. What these factionists want is, that as the rebels failed to accomplish their ends by getting out of the Union, they shall now succeed by staying in. That would be lucky for them, in case the result could be brought about, but would make the martyred patriots turn over in their graves.

Before Mr. LINCOLN was assassinated Mr. JOHNSON avowed his purpose to break with the Republican party. He did not want the Union dissolved; but he wanted just as little that Republican ideas should prevail in the national settlement. Hence, upon his accession to power, after a short period spent in dissimulation, so clumsily over wrought by prodigious threatenings as to excite the fears of all discerning men, he went over to the rebel side; made factious opposition to Congress; and has so far succeed in obtaining followers in the Southern States as to impede reconstruction. Yet this man has the effrontery to declaim because reconstruction progresses so slowly. If he would only give his influence to that end, the whole work could be closed up in ninety days.

OHIO NEWS.

—At Huntington, Lorain county, there has been an unusual amount of severe sickness.

—At Elyria the new town hall is completed. It seats seven hundred and fifty people, and cost $30,000.

—Lieut. Col. David Dove, of the Second Virginia (loyal) Cavalry, died in Johnson county, Ohio, on the 12th inst.

—Ex-Mayor Samuel Hendry and wife, of Oberlin, celebrated their golden wedding on the 13th instant. Mr. and Mrs. Swift, of Ravenna, observed a like anniversary on the 15th.

—Mr. Nathaniel Holmes, the oldest citizen of Akron, died at his residence on North Broadway, at 1 o'clock P. M. on the 13th inst. Mr. Holmes was born at Fishkill, Duchess county, New York, on the 14th day of May, 1780, and was consequently 87 years, 7 months and 27 days old at the time of his death.

—A correspondent of the Mansfield Herald says: "Mrs. Haskins, who died at Camden on the 16th ult., was born in what is now Burlington, Vt., in 1751, and was consequently 116 years of age when she died. When young she was bound out, and did much hard work. In early life she lived on Long Island, and when the British invaded New York, fled on foot, carrying her bed and a few other articles eighteen miles, to a place of safety. She was the mother of ten children, eight of whom still survive."

—A Mt. Gilead (Morrow county) correspondent of the Cleveland Herald says: The old stock of molasses on hand is now being used. Much of the wheat that was sown has a poor stool. Streams and wells were dried up to a great extent, farmers and others having to haul water for house use, and drive their stock to water. It is thought by many that the drouth hastened the maturity of the apple crop, which is a considerable item in this county. The result has been that green apples have not kept well. Over ten thousand bushels were bought in this place; considerable loss sustained; rotten apples were hauled out by the load, and the kind that usually keep until April and May are now mellow. Fall pasture being short, required early feeding. There is plenty of hay and grain, but they command a high price. Live stock of all kinds are doing well, except sheep where farms were overstocked; but little demand for stock at present. There is some wool in the market yet; price from 35 to 40 cents.

—St. Louis passenger railway company, five in number, in their exhibits of business for the past year, show a loss of over seventy thousand dollars. Only one road in the city has made money, and that only twelve thousand dollars. An appeal is to be made to the Legislature for authority to raise the fare from five to six cents.

SOUTH AMERICA.

Peace in Grenada—Revolution in Peru Progressing—Revolution in Bolivia—The War Between Brazil and Paraguay.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, January 22.—The steamer Arizona, from Aspinwall, brings $958,000 in treasure.

Peace reigns in New Grenada, and is likely to be preserved for some time.

The revolution in Peru is gaining ground. In the South and North the rebels had cut off Prado's communication with the coast, and Arequipa appears firm to hold out against him, while several other provinces are under revolutionary control. The Government troops, though reinforced, have yet been unable to get the better of the rebels in the North.

A revolution has broken out in Bolivia under Gen. Acha.

The Chilian Congress has authorized the use of eight hundred thousand dollars in the construction of a wharf and bonded warehouses at Valparaiso.

The steamer South America, from Rio Janeiro Dec. 26, arrived to-day. Two raids had been made by the allies and three thousand cattle and some horses captured, but no parties of Paraguayans were encountered. An expedition was preparing in the allied camp to capture a fortified Paraguayan post, believed to be the point whence supplies passed over to the Chaicets and held by six hundred men. Deserters reported that Lopez had three thousand men at work making a road through Chaico, and that his plan was to leave Humita garrisoned with two or three thousand men and transfer the remainder to the above mentioned place, there to make head in a strong position. Meantime he continued the construction of strong inner defensive lines and had organized a force of one thousand cavalry, which came outside the trenches but kept within the assistance of the cannon of the fortress. The river batteries of Humita appeared to be crumbling away under the continuous fire of the iron clads.

Report said an expedition of five thousand allied cavalry was being prepared to go to Ascension. The cholera has almost entirely disappeared from the allied army and the fleet.

A considerable band of runaway slaves was attacked in the forests of the province of Para by wild Indians and all but five killed.

A collection of twelve hundred fishes was made in the province of Gozaz for Prof. Agassiz.

The cholera at Buenos Ayres is killing eighty to one hundred and forty persons daily. Great numbers are fleeing to the country, and trade is stagnant.

The Banks of Uruguay have been allowed to suspend specie payment till the end of May, causing a paralyzation of business in the Rio market. Sales of coffee for the month 150,000 bags, of which 57,000 bags were for the United States; prices unchanged.

CALIFORNIA.

Railroad Enterprise—Terrible Storm in Idaho.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—The Central Pacific Railroad Company propose to push forward their line across the plains energetically during the present year. They have organized a force of ten thousand workmen to carry on the work through the Humboldt country. The Central Company also have two corps of engineers surveying the route between San Francisco and Sacramento, intending to complete the connection of the two cities as soon as possible. It is the intention of the California and Oregon Company to commence work on their road early in the spring. The San Jose Company expect to complete the extension of their road to Gilroy before next harvest. On other roads surveyed through the Russian river country work will commence in the spring.

Late Idaho advices state a terrible snow and wind snow passed over that country about the first of January.

The Indians, tired of warfare, express their willingness to go on a reservation.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, January 22, 1868.

SENATE.

The CHAIR announced the following House bills for reference:

Supplementary Reconstruction Act.

On motion Mr. DOOLITTLE laid over, as he desired to address the Senate on a motion to instruct the Committee to report a certain amendment to the bill for the relief of destitute persons in the South. Referred to Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. TRUMBULL presented a memorial of Manufacturers in Ohio, complaining against the system of appointments for Disbursements, and Collectors of public monies and recommending a system of examination of candidates to be adopted. Referred to Committee on Retrenchment.

Mr. CATTELL, from the Committee on Conference on the bill to prevent the contraction of currency, reported, and the report was agreed to.

Mr. SHERMAN presented a report from the Committee of Conference on the bill relieving cotton from tax, stating they were unable to agree, and moved the appointment of another Committee, and instructing them to recede from the Senate amendment and report an amendment allowing the importation of cotton free of duty.

After discussion, at the suggestion of Mr. ANTHONY, Mr. SHERMAN modified his resolution by providing that in the further conference asked by the House the members of the Committee on the part of the Senate be instructed to recede from the Senate's amendment, providing the House accept the amendment relative to imported cotton.

Mr. MORTON moved to amend by providing that the entire tax be suspended till after 1868, and after that year it be one cent per pound.

After further debate the amendment was adopted by twenty-five to eighteen.

Mr. SUMNER, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported a joint resolution providing for the representation of the United States at the International Exhibition at Havre, the present year. It authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to detail one or more officers of the Navy.

Mr. TRUMBULL opposed the taking up of the bill, and referred to the appropriations on account of the Paris Exposition, which had kept on growing.

The joint resolution was laid on the table.

Mr. HOWARD introduced a bill granting alternate sections of land to the Northern Michigan Railroad Company in extension of the Northern Pacific Railroad, in the same manner and to the same amount as provided in the act granting lands to the last named company through Minnesota and Wisconsin. The road is to run from Saginaw City, Michigan, to the Straits of Mackinaw, and thence to a point on the Montreal River, near the south shore of Lake Superior on the boundary line between Michigan and Wisconsin.

Mr. HOWE introduced a bill to amend the act providing for the collection of duties on imports, approved March, 1863. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

On motion of Mr. CONKLING, the Judiciary Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the joint resolutions relative to the rights of American citizens to sell vessels to citizens of other countries.

On motion of Mr. HARLAN, the Senate took up the bill appropriating $25,000 for the temporary relief of destitute people of the District of Columbia. The amendment of the Committee, reducing the amount to $15,000, was adopted and the bill passed.

Mr. HOWE introduced a bill providing for the removal of suits and proceedings brought in State Courts against Collectors of Internal Revenue, or their deputies, and United State Marshals, to the Courts of the United States. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The resolution to admit Mr. Thomas, Senator elect from Maryland, on taking the oath, was taken up and debated by Messrs. DOOLITTLE, DRAKE, TIPTON and others.

The debate was interrupted by the announcement of the death of Representative NOELL.

Eulogies were pronounced by Messrs. HENDERSON and DRAKE, and the customary resolutions were adopted.

Messrs. Morrill, of Vermont, Sherman and Hendricks were appointed the second Conference Committee on the cotton tax bill.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. CLARKE, of Kansas, offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of War for information as to the extent of the Fort Riley military reservation, and whether it is all needed for military purposes. Adopted.

Mr. FERRY offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Naval Affairs to inquire into the expediency of establishing a Navy Yard and Naval Depot at Grand Haven, Michigan. Adopted.

Mr. GRAVELLY introduced a bill to create a Southwestern Judicial District of Missouri. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

Mr. BUTLER offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of War for information as to the reported suffering of United States troops in Sitka from cold and hunger. Adopted.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the Senate amendments to the deficiency bill, and disposed of them as follows:

Amendment appropriating $1344 as increased compensation to Congressional printer. Concurred in.

Appropriating $15,000 for stationery, with a proviso that hereafter only $1,200 shall be allowed for stationery and newspapers to each member or Senator for any one session.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Ill., moved an amendment that no further allowance be made for the year ending March 3d, 1868, than was already made.

This gave rise to considerable discussion, in the course of which, in reply to a suggestion of Mr. MAYNARD, that all members should be allowed to draw what other stationery they needed,

Mr. STEVENS, of Pa., said that plan had been tried and had to be changed, because some members procured under the name of stationery pantaloons and shirts, and shaving soap enough to last them for years. (Laughter.) Some members had run up an account for stationery to nearly $1,000.

The discussion also extended to the question of mileage, Mr. BROMWELL, of Ills., charging that western members charged mileage by way of Chicago and New York, and Mr. ANDERSON, who is Chairman of the Committee on Mileage, contradicting that assertion by the statement that no western member had been allowed mileage by himself or by the Speaker by way of Chicago and New York; that the Chicago member himself (Mr. Judd) charged mileage by direct route to Washington, and that the mileage of other members was collected on that basis by himself and the Speaker.

Mr. WASHBURNE'S amendment to the amendment was rejected and the Senate amendment concurred in.

All the Senate amendments were concurred in without question, except the last, which repeals all laws permitting the transfer of appropriations from one branch of business in a Department to another branch. It was non-concurred in, and the bill goes back to the Senate for its action on that amendment.

Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back the bill to aid the improvement of the Desmoines and Rock Island rapids on the Mississippi River. It permits the officers in charge of the work to take the right of way over adjacent lands and use any earth, quarry, &c., necessary for the prosecution of the work. After explanation by Mr. WILSON, the bill passed.

Mr. WILLIAMS, of Penna., from the same Committee, reported back the bill providing for the holding of a Circuit Court in Erie, Pa. Passed.

Mr. SHANKS, from Committee on Indian Affairs, reported a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to cause the lands of the Miami Indians to be patented. The bill passed.

Mr. GARFIELD, from Committee on Military Affairs, reported back the bill authorizing the sale of the unoccupied military site at Waterford, Pennsylvania. Passed.

Mr. WASHBURNE, Indiana, from same Committee, reported back the Senate amendment to the House bill in relation to additional bounties.

Pending the discussion the morning hour expired, and the bill went over till to-morrow.

Several resolutions of inquiry of an unimportant character were adopted.

Mr. VAN WYCK, from the Committee on Retrenchment, presented a report in the case of the Gettysburg Asylum scheme, closing with a resolution directing the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to revoke his permission exempting it from the payment of a special tax and license, the revocation to take effect from May 29th last. Ordered printed and postponed till to-morrow.

The SPEAKER presented estimates for deficiencies in Indian Department. Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

Also, a resolution of delegates of the Mississippi Constitutional Convention asking the removal of disabilities from R. W. Flourney and three other persons. Referred to Committee on Reconstruction.

Also, a memorial of a Committee of Common Council of Washington City, on behalf of persons out of employment, praying for the improvement of the city in places reported by Mr. Mickler, in charge of public buildings and grounds. Referred to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds.

Mr. KERR offered a resolution reciting that many of the decisions of the United States Supreme Court possess no intrinsic value to the profession or to the country, and instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the expediency of empowering the Court to direct that such decisions are not to be reported. Adopted.

Mr. BLAINE introduced a bill in relation to taxing shares in National Banks. Referred to Committee on Banking and Currency. It enacts that the words "place where the bank is located and elsewhere," in section forty-one of the National Currency Act, shall be construed to mean the State in which the bank is located, and that the State Legislature may determine and direct the manner and place of taxing shares of National Banks in the State, subject to the restriction that the taxation shall not be at a greater rate than is assessed upon other monied capital, and provided that the shares of any National Bank owned by a non-resident of any State shall be taxed in the city or town where the bank is located and not elsewhere.

Mr. MAYNARD offered a resolution directing the Secretary of War to inform the House whether any report had been made to Gen. Hancock of the riot at Marshall, Texas, on the 31st of December, 1868, and if so to transmit a copy of the same. Adopted.

Mr. ROSS asked leave to offer a resolution instructing the Secretary of the Treasury to suspend any further issue of 10-40 bonds until further action of Congress, but Mr. UPSON objected.

Mr. JULIAN offered a resolution instructing the Postoffice Committee, in view of the great and constantly increasing frauds connected with the franking privilege, and of the necessity of economy, to inquire into the expediency of totally abolishing that system.

Mr. JULIAN also offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Education to inquire into the expediency of providing for a general system of education in the districts lately in rebellion, including a sufficient number of common schools for the education of every child, irrespective of color or other distinction, between the ages of five and twenty.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill reported by Mr. JULIAN, from Committee on Public Lands, declaring forfeited to the United States certain lands given to aid the construction of railroads in the States of Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Florida.

Mr. JULIAN addressed the House in explanation and advocacy of the bill, dwelling at considerable length upon the impolicy of allowing five millions of acres of land to be held in the grasp of corporators and speculators, while thirteen-fourteenths of the people of the South are landless and denouncing those corporations for the aid they gave to the rebillion.

Mr. CHANLER, who had suggested that the subject matter of the bill was before the Select Committee on Southern Railroads, made the point of order that the question whether these railroads had been loyal or disloyal had no connection with the measure before the House.

The SPEAKER overruled the point.

Mr. JULIAN then said the gentleman from New York (Mr. Chanler) will possess his soul in as much patience as he can under this exposure of the rebel character of his friends in the South.

Mr. CHANLER (who was occupying a seat close to Mr. Julian) rose and exclaimed: The gentleman in making any such assertion uses the words of a coward!

The SPEAKER instantly called Mr. Chanler to order.

Mr. CHANLER, before resuming his seat, said: The gentleman from Indiana should not take advantage of his position to make such a statement, and then prevent his (Mr. Chanler's) replying to it.

The SPEAKER, knocking with his gavel, repeated that the remarks of the gentleman from New York were out of order. The remarks having been reduced to writing by the Globe reporter, were read from the clerk's desk. The words attributed to Mr. Chanler using the word "coward."

The SPEAKER ruled that the language used by the gentleman from New York was unparliamentary and out of order.

Mr. CHANLER reminded the Speaker that in connection with the words excepted to he had made use of the expression that the gentleman from Indiana was taking advantage of his position.

The SPEAKER remarked that no qualification justified one member in applying to another the epithet of coward. It was unparliamentary and improper.

Mr. CHANLER—Certainly not, if he is one.

Mr. JULIAN—If the gentleman from New York believes what he says, he can test that question at any time.

Mr. CHANLER—Very well, sir; I will take an early opportunity. Has the Chair ruled out of order the words of the gentleman from Indiana?

The SPEAKER—The Chair ruled the words of the gentleman from New York out of order. [Laughter.]

Mr. CHANLER—That is very easily understood.

The SPEAKER—The Chair will say that the remarks from the gentleman from Indiana, though they may not have been very pleasant to the gentleman from New York, did not violate any parliamentary rule. They may, perhaps, have been severe from their inference, but they did not offend any parliamentary law.

The bill went over until to-morrow to enable the Missouri members to announce the death of their colleague, Thomas E. Noell.

Eulogies were made by Messrs. NEWCOMB, BURR, KERR, PILE, McCORMICK, NIBLACK and MOTT. Appropriate resolutions were adopted and the House adjourned.

The Armstrong Foundry Case

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22, 1868.

THE COTTON TAX BILL.

The second Conference Committee on the bill to repeal the tax on cotton has agreed to report to the respective houses that the bill as passed by the House shall be adopted, with the Senate amendment taking the tariff off coarse India cotton. This is in accordance with the instructions which the Senate gave the committee appointed by it this afternoon.

THE ARMSTRONG FOUNDRY CASE

Will come up in the Supreme Court next week, and must decide the following points: First—Whether a seizure and capture are the same. Second—Whether the property liable to capture and prize embraces land held by private title. Third—Whether property tainted by the guilty consent of the owner is relieved by his pardon after condemnation and before sales. Fourth—Whether the citizen shut up in a place occupied by Confederate arms can be responsible to the United States for breach of municipal law under the command of the military force of the Confederacy. Fifth—Whether the Constitution operates with its guarantees when the United States recovers the city.

MINISTER RESIGNED.

John P. Hale has tendered his resignation as Minister at the Court of Madrid, and a new appointment will soon be made.

MANUFACTURERS.

Convention at Worcester, Mass

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WORCESTER, January 22.—The Convention of Manufacturers of New England assembled to-day, and organized by choosing Hon. William Gray, of Boston, President, and fifty or more Vice Presidents. The morning session was occupied in the appointment of committees and listening to the President's speech, which was well received. The attendance is very large.

The Committee on Resolutions, after ten hours deliberation, reported a series of resolutions, of which the following is a synopsis:

The Convention approves the action of the National Manufacturers' Convention, held at Cleveland, in December last, in recommending the abolition of all taxation on the necessary domestic industries of the country, and the imposition of taxation upon luxuries, and regards it as an auspicious omen that the first great movement should come from the west, with whose interests and prosperity the well being of the entire country is closely allied. It cordially concurs with the affirmation made by the Cleveland Convention of the sacredness of the full and just payment of the national debt first and before all other considerations of advantage to individuals or classes.

The resolutions are further that the powers of consumption of the people and their profitable occupation are in proportion to the diversification of productive employment, and consequently to the development of manufacturing, as well as agricultural industry and commerce; that notwithstanding a vigorous manufacturing industry with increasing capital, from its saving the productive power of the country, must fall behind the supply of necessities, the comforts for the people diminish, the compensation for labor be reduced, the sources for domestic and foreign commerce fail, and the ability to endure taxation be seriously lessened. In acknowledgment of these principles, it has been the policy of all modern civilized nations to make such administration, disposition and distribution of taxation as would most favor their domestic industries.

The taxation on necessary productions in this country, imposed when the life of the nation was endangered, and most cheerfully paid to preserve it, becomes endurable when it is paid to save the foundations of industry which sustains the material life of the nation.

Further, it is demonstrated by experience that tax upon production has already largely absorbed the saving of our manufacturing industry, leaving insufficient means for its extension in proportion to our increasing population that is now encroaching upon the capital itself; that it has materially impaired our productive power and our capacity to purchase the raw material of the agricultural districts; and the continuance of this burden must involve the ruin of that diversified industry which has given prosperity to the United States.

The concluding resolution is in the following words:

Resolved, That while the manufacturers of the country demand to be heard in relation to such facts affecting the public and their own welfare as it is their peculiar province to observe and duly make known, they confide in the wisdom and patriotism of Congress for due provision for the national obligations and the indispensable expenditures of the Government, and also for such retrenchment and economy as our present financial and industrial condition urgently require.

The resolutions were adopted by acclamation.

A memorial to Congress was adopted embodying suggestions as to the means by which the end aimed at in the resolutions might be arrived at.

Fifty-one delegates to Washington were then appointed to carry out the wishes of the Convention, and to urge upon the Government their earliest consideration. Of the delegates four are representatives of woolen manufactures, six that of cotton, seven of paper, one of machine card clothing, two of calico printing, fifteen of shoes and leather, three of watches, six of furniture, one of iron and its products and two cutlery.

After the customary closing proceedings, the Convention adjourned, the utmost harmony having characterized its action.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, Jan. 22.—A telegraphic dispatch, dated City of Mexico, January 15th, says President Juarez has tendered to Senor Romero a position in the Cabinet as Minister of Finance. There is no doubt Senor Romero will accept the office, but before entering upon the duties will probably return to Washington for a short time.

Gov. Auza has been appointed Minister of the Interior.

The Spanish War steamer Chorruca was ordered to Carthagena, to watch the steamer R. R. Cuyler.

At a meeting of the Trustees of the Peabody Fund, held to-day, the following resolution was offered by Gen. Grant and adopted:

Resolved, That in view of the present destitution prevailing in the Southern and Southwestern States, it is, in the opinion of this board, expedient that the Executive Committee and General Agent be authorized, in conformity with the permission granted by Mr. Peabody, to expend forty per cent. of the principal of the fund, in addition to accrued interest, and that as large a portion of said sum, not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars, be expended during the current year as in their judgment can be advantageously used in promoting the object of the trust, and the authority of the Board is hereby given to such appropriation.

Another resolution was adopted, giving the General Agent authority to increase the sums already promised for education, and make payments quarterly or semi annually.

The Board adjourned to meet in New York on the third Thursday in June.

A report of the Committee on Organization, relative to the election of clerks and messengers, was adopted, authorizing the President of the Convention to appoint such number of each as was necessary.

The rules of the House of Representatives, with slight alteration, were adopted.

Governor Walker and the State officers were invited to seats in the Convention.

MISSISSIPPI.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION—MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS TO REMOVE STATE OFFICERS.

JACKSON, January 22.—In the Constitutional Convention to-day the rules were suspended to receive the reports of Standing and Special Committees, and also the report of the Committee appointed to confer with the General Commanding to request him to suspend the collection of taxes for 1867 from all persons not allowed representation.

The Committee on memorial to Congress, requesting the removal of State officers, made a majority report, reciting that the loyal people of Mississippi require immediate aid from Congress to remove the obstructions impeding their representatives in Convention assembled; that the Government is administered by rebels, not merely in name, but in heart, head and deeds, in all respects save open hostility; that the great mass of the Southern people manifest absolute and unmistakable hostility to reconstruction; that the faithful Union men and loyalists have met proscription with calm defiance and unfaltering devotion to the country, to liberty and to the Union; and now that rebel sentiments have culminated on the floor of this Convention, in a member's report to this body averring that the Convention is an unauthorized assembly, called by an unconstitutional law of Congress, and has therefore no legal or binding power in the State of Mississippi compelling obedience to its ordinances; the officials in the administration of the Provisional Government of the State, whose terms of office have expired, but who have been continued in office by the forbearance of Congress, have neglected to protect the life and property of loyal men, have used, and will continue to use their power to prevent the growth of loyalty and restoration of peace and order, at least their action or non-action may result greatly to the embarrassment of the Convention in the work of reconstruction. Wherefore, in the name and in behalf of the loyal people of Mississippi, in the name of justice, loyalty and humanity, we most earnestly and respectfully petition your honorable bodies to authorize this Convention to declare the civil offices of State vacant, and to fill them at once by the appointment of true loyal men who we believe will greatly contribute to the success of the Congressional plan of reconstruction.

A minority of the same Committee reported that as Congress had confided the State affairs to the Military Commander of the District as the bill now pending before Congress in all probability will pass, giving General Grant supervisory power over all the military districts, thus securing a more just and efficient Government in this and all other Southern States; as Congress recently defeated the resolution to vacate such offices and empower the Convention to fill them; and as probably the speedy change from military to civil government will be established by the vote of the people; therefore, it is deemed inexpedient to thus memoralize Congress on the subject.

No action was taken on either report. Adjourned.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 22.—In the Convention to-day article ninety-three of the Constitution, providing for the election of two Sheriffs and two Coroners for the Parish of Orleans, was adopted. One Sheriff is officer of the Criminal Court and the other of the Civil Court.

Article ninety-four to ninety-six inclusive, defining the powers of impeachment and prescribing process thereof, were adopted.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

A Sharper Caught.

Mr. Charles Becker, a detective from Newark, New Jersey, passed through this city yesterday, having in charge George W. Loman alias William Manges, whom he arrested at Detroit, Michigan, a few days since, for fraudulent operations extensively carried on in Newark. It appears that Loman is a New York sharper and has victimized a number of New Jerseyians. A short time since he visited Newark and represented himself as a shoe dealer, at No. 21 Courtland street, New York, giving as references names of prominent brokers and business men in that city. His object in visiting Newark, he said, was to purchase leather, and he succeeded admirably, as he purchased a large quantity of leather from different firms at good bargains and on suitable terms. After making all the purchases he desired, he departed with them. Subsequently the Newark men became uneasy and visited New York, and upon calling on some of the gentlemen to whom they had been referred, were answered that Loman was all right, which for the time satisfied them. After the matter had run for some time they again instituted inquiry and learned there was no such man doing business on Courtland street, and at the same time ascertained that they had been swindled, and that the man who had imposed upon them had left the city in company with an actress. Mr. Becker took the matter in hand, and after a considerable search, and repeatedly taking up lost clues, succeeded in tracing the false pretender to Detroit, Michigan. He arrested him there on Saturday, and started with him for the east, arriving here on his route at about ten o'clock Tuesday evening. The prisoner was placed in the lock-up over night, and yesterday morning was taken out, handcuffed, and taken on towards Newark on the 11:15 train. It is supposed that some of the names which appeared on Loman's recommendations were not forgeries, and their owners are implicated in the doings of the prisoner.

Orphans of Soldiers.

The friends of the orphans of soldiers will rejoice to know that the establishment for their education and general welfare at Phillipsburg, under the care of Rev. W. G. Tayler, is eminently successful. When we visited it there were about one hundred boys and eighty-two girls enjoying good health and most wisely managed. It is a ground for gratitude that the Superintendent knows how to reach the orphans' hearts and secure their love and attention to duty, without severe disciplinary measures. Aided by competent teachers the usual branches of education are well taught, and an opportunity given to learn music on the piano. The religious education will be christian without being sectarian. It is affecting to address a congregation of precious youth, whose fathers offered up their lives for their country in its great struggle against rebellion.

The buildings for this institution are well adapted for light, ventilation and heat, and everything is kept clean and neat and in its place. The boarding and dress of the orphans is substantial and comfortable. Everything is adapted to make a useful and happy home to all children who can be reasonably satisfied.

Four gentlemen in the vicinity, belonging to different political parties, have given everything appertaining to the Institution a thorough examination, and "congratulate Col. McFarland, the State Superintendent of soldiers' orphans, and the State authorities on the great success that has attended the soldiers' orphans school, located at Phillipsburg."

Alleged Larceny.

Caroline Eisenhoven was arrested on Tuesday evening on a charge of larceny, preferred by Mrs. Davis, of Allegheny, before Alderman Donaldson, and was confined in the lock-up until yesterday morning, when she had a hearing, which developed the following facts: The defendant, it appears, lived with Mrs. Davis, and has always borne a good character for honesty. On Monday Mrs. D. had occasion to use her pocket book while engaged in the kitchen with the defendant, and after using it she left it lying on the table. Shortly after she was called from the room and remained out about ten minutes, and on her return missed the pocket book. The defendant in the meantime had gone to the cellar, and was still there when Mrs. Davis returned to the kitchen. Search was instituted for the lost pocket book, but to no purpose, as it could not be found. The defendant was questioned about it, but denied any knowledge of its whereabouts. As no one else had been in the kitchen during the time, suspicion pointed to her as the guilty one, notwithstanding her previous good character. She was arrested and searched, but no evidence of her guilt was found. She was committed to jail for a further hearing.

Dry Goods at Great Bargains.

Great bargains in seasonable dry goods are offered the trade at the extensive house of Messrs. Bates & Bell, No. 21 Fifth street. The firm have on hand a very large stock, which was selected with rare care and judgment during the present depression in the Eastern markets, and which is now offered at very low prices, as cheap as can be obtained elsewhere in the city. The stock embraces silks, poplins, merinos, dress goods of all descriptions, shawls and everything usually kept in similar first class houses. A visit, friends, is advised, as there is no charge for showing goods, and all are afforded an opportunity of judging of the remarkable bargains offered.

Clerk of the Court, John Brown, Esq., was absent from his office yesterday, in consequence of a death in his family.

A Railroad Collision.

About half past four o'clock Tuesday evening a collision occurred on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, near Brady's Bend, between two oil trains. A train of eleven cars loaded with coal and eleven oil tank cars, drawn by engine No. 8, left this city for Venango City in the evening, but before reaching Brady's Bend was behind time. The crude oil train, drawn by engine No. 25, coming towards the city, was also a little behind, and when the train going north had proceeded a short distance beyond Brady's Bend the one drawn by No. 25 came in sight. The engineer of the latter train succeeded in reversing his engine, and checked the progress of the train entirely. The train going north, however, could not be stopped, and a violent collision ensued. Engine No. 8 was almost completely demolished, but the other locomotive was very little damaged, the only injury being the tearing off of the cow-catcher. The firemen and engineers on both locomotives escaped injury by jumping off. Locomotive No. 25 was attached to the train going north, and proceeded with it to Venango City, and another engine was sent to Brady's Bend to bring in the damaged engine and the crude oil train. The cars of both trains were uninjured.

Important Cases.

Attorney General Brewster is now engaged before the Supreme Court, at Philadelphia, in a number of important cases. Com. vs. Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, involving the question of the validity of the act repealing the charter of that company, was before the Court last week, and occupied three days in argument. Hon. Reverdy Johnson and J. H. Latrobe, Esq., appeared for defendants. Judge Green's case and that of the Gettysburg asylum for invalid soldiers will also be heard during the present session of the Court in Philadelphia. The former case is to test the constitutionality of the act of the last session, erecting a new Criminal Court in Dauphin, Lebanon and Schuylkill counties. The quo warranto in the Gettysburg case was returnable in July last, but no Court sitting until the fall, and the pleadings requiring a considerable time to be perfected, no argument has yet been had. The case will be finally disposed of as soon as a day for argument is forced by the Court. The question of the right of the Quarter Sessions Judges to enter rules, within term, to reconsider sentences imposed by them, and of remitting the same to an indefinite period, after they have been pronounced, is also being prepared for the court at its present sitting.

First Class Grocery Establishment

Among the first class representative establishments of our sister city, Allegheny, none stands more deservedly high in the estimation of the general community than the wholesale and retail grocery and produce house of Messrs. McBride & George, No. 164 Federal street. Since assuming charge of this old and favorably known house, this firm have succeeded, by conducting their business in admirable manner, in monopolizing a full share of public patronage, and in rendering their store a popular headquarters for the purchasing community. Their stock of groceries, teas, coffees, canned fruits, sugars, spices, table condiments and provisions is always kept up to the full requirements of the trade, and will be found to possess unusual attractions, being large, cheap and fresh. Housekeepers should not fail to pay McBride & George a purchasing visit, and thus become convinced of the great advantage afforded by this house for their patronage. Having personal acquaintance with both members of the firm we are prepared to commend them in the highest terms to our readers as gentlemen eminently worthy of encouragement, being honorable and fair dealing in all their transactions.

Serious Accident.

A serious accident occurred at Jones & Laughlin's Iron Works, on Tuesday afternoon, which came near resulting fatally to John Rosenthrall, who was employed at the works as carpenter. Mr. R. got into an empty coal car, used for the purpose of drawing coal from the pit to the works, for the purpose of ascending to the "check house," and had proceeded to a point where the trestle work over which the railway ran, which was about twenty-five feet high, when the car slipped from the track and was precipitated to the ground with the man in it. His injuries were at first thought to be fatal, as it was some time after he was taken up before he was restored to consciousness. He was, as soon as the circumstances of his case would permit, removed to his house in Upper St. Clair township. His injuries, although serious, are not as bad as at first supposed, and he is recovering slowly.

Evening Classes.

It tells well for the intelligence of the young men of our cities, that the classes formed for gratuitous instruction to their members by the Young Men's Christian Association and the Church Guild are so well sustained. We made a little call last evening on the class in the Young Men's Christian Association rooms, to which Tuesday evening is devoted—the class in music under Mr. James Digby—and were gratified with the manifest interest Mr. Digby is able to maintain in the instruction he is imparting. Every seat was taken and Mr. Digby seemed to enjoy the undivided attention of his pupils.

The Association has a class also in mechanics, which meets at night, usually under the care of Prof. E. P. Crane of the Western University; another in German taught by Prof. Philip Rapperport on Friday evenings, and one in mechanical drawing, under Messrs. Butler and Crystie, gentlemen professionally familiar with the matters they teach.

The Enterprising Firm of Barr, Knake & Buetler, music dealers, on St. Clair street, have sent us copies of two pleasing songs entitled "The Meeting," by Edward Herrmanson, and "Those dark Eyes," by T. R. Bishop. We need hardly say a word in their praise; the music is sweetness and harmony itself. In addition there is a mazurke brilliante, entitled "'Enchanting Sonnets,'" by E. Mack, a splendid composition for advanced scholars, worth while listening to at any concert.

Gratifying.—The sheriff of Northampton county has not a single sale of real estate for the approaching January court. This is a circumstance that has not occurred for the last twenty-five years and is an evidence of the general prosperity of the people of that county.

Arrested.—Henry Miller, who had entered bail for his appearance at Court to answer a charge of assault and battery, was yesterday arrested on a bail piece and committed to jail to await his trial.

A Wondrous Cure.

DR. KEYSER:—I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you. On the first of April, in the year 1865, as you will remember, I was sorely afflicted with the scrofula, and had gave up all hopes of ever having a cure. I often thought that if was impossible, that nothing could be done, for I had tried nearly everything that was within my reach and tried seven well learned doctors; and failed in all; some could relieve me of my awful suffering of pain that was raging in my body, but no touch towards effecting a cure, and one day as I was reading over the list of cures effected by your treatment on Scrofula, I began to think of the old saying "that as long as there was life there was hope," and I would try once more, for I knew I never could get well by doing nothing; that the disease had taken a deep hold in my body, and was fast devouring the flesh from off my bones, and without some help I must surely die; and that was a settled point by all who ever saw or was acquainted with me, for I had running sores on my left shoulder and arm, and they were filled with proud flesh. I could not use my arm at all by times, and my right leg was affected from my body to the end of my toes, running sores on and about the knee, and was swelled till I often thought it would burst. When I set my foot on the floor there was no natural feeling in my foot and leg, by times, for the skin became all purple spotted, and there were days and weeks and months that I could not walk a step without the aid of some one's help, or a staff, and at last run all over my head and face. My face and head were also swollen, and it affected my eyes so that I could not see to read or work any at all, and there arose large lumps of humor, one after the other, around my neck and face. Indeed, I suffered days and nights, I scarcely knew when I was asleep, and I began to think this would not do. I then presented myself before Dr. Keyser, and he said that a cure was certain, and I began immediately to undergo his treatment; and it was light, I thought, for all other doctors had blistered and cupped and caused me pain; but the third night after I began to take Dr. Keyser's medicine I slept the whole night without pain or groan, and the swellings began to disappear from all parts of my body, and in three months I could walk four miles in one day, and in six months the awful sores were entirely cured up, and in one year I was entirely cured, was perfectly well; have had better health than I ever had in my life ever since, and I thought that I'd wait long enough to be certain of the truth; that I have remained healthy and strong ever since, and a thousand thanks to you, which, under the providence of God, that you have cured me, that he may bless the use of your medicine to others as he has to me, and that his Divine grace may attend you, is the heartfelt prayer of your patient.

I wish you to publish this and let all the world know what I do about your medicine, for I consider it my duty to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others, who may be suffering as I was, and do not know the value of your medicine.

THURSDAY, JAN. 23, 1868.

THE friends of a Free Railroad Law may reasonably anticipate a severe struggle in the State Senate. It seems probable the opposition thereto will mainly, if not exclusively, be developed in that body.

EX-GOVERNOR CURTIN has bought a lot of ground in Bellefonte, and will soon commence building a dwelling house on it for his own occupancy. During the winter his family will be located in Philadelphia, he remaining with them about half the time, his business engagements calling him to Bellefonte or elsewhere, the remaining portion. After the turmoil of ten years in public life his present comparative repose must be grateful to his feelings.

RESTORATION OF SECRETARY STANTON.

That the Office Tenure Law originated in the desire of Congress to prevent the removal of Mr. STANTON from the War Department by the President, is a fact too notorious to be successfully disputed. That the Law was so precisely worded as to completely cover his case, has been doubted, by us and by others. The Senate has judged from the standpoint of its consciousness. What it intended; what the President and all others knew to be intended by the law; it assumes to be the law. Such action dispenses with verbal criticism, by rising into a plane above it. Courts proceed by a different method. Having no consciousness of intention on the part of law-makers, because not of that class, they go exclusively by the meaning they attach to words and phrases; and sometimes they do most surprising things by construction—finding in a statute what the framers thereof never thought of putting into it, and what plain people, guided only by common sense, never conjectured could be educed therefrom. We do not see that Courts can adopt any other rule of interpretation than that they follow. From the nature of the case the Senate has a safe rule, and resorts to it. In this, it does well. It has the same right to work by methods congenial to its nature and function, as the Courts have to pursue methods suited to their sphere and character.

Mr. STANTON has been charged with humoring both the President and Congress, giving each assurances of his sympathy and co operation. That is a matter quite apart from the issue between the Executive and Legislative Departments. Whether he was frank and sincere in his intercourse with either is a problem for each of those Departments to settle with him; not with each other. This was evidently one view of the Senate in reinstating the Secretary. The President had suspended him. The Senate judged the reasons assigned for the suspension to be insufficient, and put him back. It looks, indeed, as if the Senate was satisfied as to Mr. STANTON's intentions towards Congress; but that was not material to the action taken in his behalf.

The course of the Senate was dignified and energetic, and has imparted solid satisfaction to all loyal men. It is to be hoped that both houses are fully resolved to sustain what has been done by any further action that may become needful by the progress of events. In a number of important exigencies Congress has quailed and retreated when it should have moved steadily forward, and with increased vigor. By its hesitancy in grave crises it has shaken the confidence of the supporting masses, and even bewildered those most ready to render assistance. Let us hope that this accession of energy and boldness is not temporary.

The conduct of General GRANT in the premises is truly gratifying. He yielded, not simply with grace, but with manifest heartiness, to the mandate of the Senate. This may safely be taken as a pregnant indication of his position touching the merits of the great controversy between the President and Congress. At first, it was charged, on the authority of the President, that the General had used duplicity; that he had promised not to yield up the Department upon Senatorial requisition, but to give the President leisure to take any ultimate measures he should deem suitable; and that he had unexpectedly failed to make good his assurances. If this charge had been sustained, it would have detracted immeasurably from the reputation of the General. But it was soon abandoned. Indeed, proof was not long in coming forth that the President was duly notified of what was intended, and failed to make the resistance he had vaunted.

Almost simultaneously it was alleged that General GRANT would be adjudged guilty of insubordination in relinquishing without the consent of his superior the Department to which he had been assigned. It will be recollected that when General GRANT superseded Mr. STANTON we held that he was not assignable as a military officer to that position, because it was purely civil; that he was assigned to it as a citizen and not as a soldier; and that it was doubtful if his headship of the Department was compatible with his generalship of the army. This position being now almost unanimously conceded, there need be no fear that Gen. GRANT will be ordered before a Court Martial for declining to play into the hands of the President in this matter.

It was intimated awhile ago that Mr. STANTON, soon after being re-instated, would resign, thus making the triumph of Congress one of form, rather than one of substance. We trust such is not the intention. The issue has been brought to a head. So far Congress is master of the situation. Let it maintain its present attitude, and it need not fear but the people will rally to its support. Pluck is a most excellent quality, when under the guidance of intelligence and conviction. Congress is now exemplifying its uses. By all means, let it persevere.

THE JUDICIARY.

Men there are so credulous as to fancy that Judges, by virtue of the fortunate selection of individuals for the magisterial function, are so nearly immaculate as to be exempt from prejudice and selfishness, from the lust of money and from partisan bias. As soon as the proposition was introduced into the House of Representatives to require either two-thirds or a unanimous concurrence of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States to impart the force of law to a decision, these men set up a howl of anguish and despair. They exclaimed that the sanctity of the Judiciary was imperilled, by an attempt to pervert it into a pendant to a dominant political party, and that boundless disaster would ensue unless the movement was successfully resisted. If these men would only stop and analyze the facts of the case, they would quickly see that they are those who want to prostitute the Court to party purposes, and that the proposed statute would make a final end of that infamy under their management or that of any other set. Consider a few points.

1. Undeniably it is a prerogative of Congress to organize and regulate the national Courts. This prerogative has been exercised by that body from the beginning of the government down to this time, and will continue to be to the end. Courts do not create themselves, define their own powers and prescribe their own methods, but are in all particulars the creatures of the law-making department. In this sense, there is, and can be, no independent Judiciary.

2. It is not a novelty under the sun to require two-thirds of the Judges of a particular Court to concur in opinion in order to the rendition of a valid decision. All the District Courts of this Commonwealth are on precisely that basis; though, it must be admitted that here two-thirds constitute a bare majority.

3. But in all jury trials the absolute agreement of twelve men is required to perfect a verdict. A man cannot be made to pay a paltry debt, or to respond in damages, no matter how slight, for offences against property, reputation, chastity or life, unless the case is made so plain that twelve men can see it in the same light. And these twelve men are mostly unskilled in determining cases of delicacy. Is it, then, a hardship that eight Judges, learned in the law, shall be required to concur in opinion in order to overrule both Congress and the President? In involving vast interests, it is too much to say that eight eminent jurists shall agree before their judgment shall suffice to set aside the other co ordinate departments of the government, and often, the will of the people besides?

4. Unanimous concurrence on the part of the Judges would make partizan decisions almost impossible. They could happen, under this rule, only when the Judges all belonged to one political party, which has never been in this country, and is not likely to be. If the Court consists of five democrats and three republicans, its decisions will be democratic, under a majority rule. So, likewise, if five should be republicans and three democrats. But require all to concur, and this will be impossible. Party preposessions will have to be discarded, and the just principles of legal interpretation prevail.

5. Or, admitting that under this rule the decisions in political cases would be predicated on compromises, this ought to be satisfactory to Conservatives, who insist on a middle ground between extremes; for it would happen that the five Judges would be constrained to moderate their view to meet the three; and the three would have to advance somewhat to meet the five. At all events, extremes would be out of the question. If, therefore, Conservatives howl at this proposition, they will do well to look into it as into a mirror and see if they are really what they profess to be; or, at once, deceivers and deceived.

—These considerations lead us to look with favor upon the proposition, even to the extent of Mr. WILLIAMS' amendment. The Supreme Court has been so long under the control of party leaders making Dred Scott decisions and what not, that it has lost the confidence and respect of the people. Even the leaders who use the Judges despise them and their office. It is full time the character of the bench was retrieved, and this can be better accomplished by the pending project than in any other method that has been or can be suggested.

Explorations in Greenland.

We have in a previous number of the Ledger adverted to the explorations in Greenland contemplated during the past summer by Mr. Edward Whymper, a celebrated Alpine traveler, and a leading member of the Alpine Club. We regret to learn by a letter just published, that he has been entirely disappointed in his expectations of penetrating the vast and entirely unknown interior of Greenland, leaving us as much in the dark as ever concerning it. Whether this interior be really in places at least a green land, abounding in lakes and running water, affording pasturage to immense herds of reindeer, as has been suggested, or whether its ice and snow increase in height and depth and ruggedness towards its central portions, cannot yet be known, and perhaps never may be.

The cause of Mr. Whymper's failure was the prevalence of an epidemic in the vicinity of his starting point, which carried off a large per centage of the able-bodied natives, leaving not enough to procure the necessary amount of seal meat (their chief sustenance,) for the others. Under these circumstances, it was a long time before Mr. Whymper could obtain the assistance required for his start. More than a month of precious time was lost, and when he was ready to set out, the snow that had at first covered over the country with a smooth, firm coating, exactly what was best for the journey, had entirely disappeared, leaving hard, rugged and ribbed ice holding small lakes, and with running streamlets on its surface. Two miles were all that was accomplished, when it became necessary, in consequence of the overturn and threatened destruction of the sledges, to turn back and abandon the enterprise. Mr. Whymper closes his letter with a well merited tribute of acknowledgment to the Danes in Greenland for their hearty assistance and co operation, a trait of character to which our own intrepid explorers, Kane and Hayes, have been ample witnesses.—Phila. Ledger.

A DEPARTING GLORY.—A subterranean stream has been discovered at Niagara Falls, which, beginning about half a mile above the Falls, has found a channel to the gulf below, and is rapidly undermining the ledge now known as the Horseshoe. It is prophesied that the Falls will be entirely broken down at an early day, and the present grand appearance of the river at that point be converted into a simple "shute" or rapid. What will the tourists do? Where will all the bridal parties go? To whom will the dusky red man and woman sell their useless but ornamental moccasins, pin-cushions and mimic canoes? What substitute will the traditional American traveler in Europe find for his—"Talk of your Alps? Waittill you see our Niagara Falls, sir!" These and other equally momentous questions of the future naturally present themselves in this gloomy prospect of destruction.

—A Portland (Me.) paper tells a story of a countryman who was coming from that place to Boston on one of the steamers, and who met with a curious accident. The vessel, it seems, had fire annihilators placed round in convenient spots. The gentleman from the interior became thirsty; eyed an annihilator for some time and evidently concluded it was some new fangled drinking arrangement, and was not going to show his greenness by asking about it. So he stepped up smartly, put the nozzle in his mouth and turned it on. The effect was instantaneous and stupendous! The countryman was knocked sprawling some ten feet away. The shock to his internal organization must have been something tremendous, for he remained senseless and speechless for some time. When he sufficiently recovered to articulate, he wanted to know if "the biler had burst!"

—The question of the rights of American naturalized citizens when abroad is now occupying a large share of the public attention. Meetings demanding protection for adopted citizens are being held in all parts of the country. It is reported that a foreign-born citizen of Cincinnati has written to Secretary Seward, stating that his name has been published in the papers of his native country as a deserter from the army, although he had left that country when he was only five years old, eighteen years ago. He inquires, in case he should make a visit to his native country, whether he would be liable to impressment into the army of that country. Mr. Seward answers that he may be subject to some detention and trouble, to which the United States Government cannot recommend him to expose himself.

—Paris society is evidently very mixed. It is all very well, but sometimes a trifle ludicrous, to notice what a promiscuous mingling of the elements there is in the gay capital. A Paris paper gives a list of the persons of highest fashion observed as present at the first representation of "Marlbrough s'en va-t-en Guerre" at the Athenee. There was Auber the composer, Madame Sass, the danseuse, the Count Gabrelli, Madame Montaubry, Theresa the flash singer, Khalil Bey, Prince Achille Murat, Berneci the notorious, Aupre, Cera Pearl, Baron Lambert, Anna Deslions, Amedee Boeher, Vestri, Desclosas, the Duke de Rivoli and a score of other celebrities, of both worlds, sandwiched in the newspaper as cosily as they were seated in the theatre.

—An especial feature in the machinery department of the late French Exposition was the variety of instruments for the economical cutting of coal, so as to save the enormous waste of the pick and other hand tools. One machine, worked by compressed air, was capable of giving sixty or seventy blows a minute, and of undercutting along a line of ten to fifteen yards in an hour, to a depth of over a yard, and with very little waste. Another more complicated machine acts not by percussion but by planing, scraping or gouging, making its way through bandstone with facility. The power is applied by hydraulic pressure, and the apparatus will cut about twelve yards in an hour.

—A carpenter named Costou has been tried at Montpellier, France, for making a false declaration to the police. On the 25th of November he gave information that he had been stopped on the high road by some armed men. Two workmen whom he had mentioned as being the aggressors were arrested, but the charge proved to be an entire fabrication. Costou was in consequence sentenced to four months' imprisonment.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Squiped saw in a New York paper, the other day, that Madame Parepa Rosa would appear in "Handel's Grand Oratorio of Samson," whereupon "Squi," turning to his son, remarked that "if anybody could handle Sampson it seemed to him that Parepa was the individual."

—It is suggested by the Southern Opinion that Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas be blotted from our maps and statutes, and that there be written in their places Hayti, North and South Guinea, Dahomey, Ashante, Sahara, Borneo, Soudan and Nigritia.

—A new Frankenstein has appeared in Newark, N. J., who has constructed a steam man, a machine in human shape, dressed in fashionable clothes, with a hat which is a "stove pipe" in reality as well as in name, a face of white enamel and neatly painted whiskers. This affair will draw a load for three horses at the rate of a mile a minute.

—The day after the drawing of the quarter million prize in the Vienna lottery, the report was set afloat that the fortunate individual was a female pastry cook in the Archduke Charles Hotel. She was neither young nor fair, but yet received a dozen offers of marriage in the course of one afternoon. She can make her selection at leisure, as she did not draw the prize.

—Fur is still much in favor. It is profusely employed in trimming. There are various ways of arranging it. For taffetas, cloth, or velvet dresses, a double row placed up each side of the front breadth is a very suitable style, a single band being put round the cuffs and armholes. The paletots of medium length have a square collar, bordered with fur. Le Follet.

—In the new spectacle play of "Gulliver," the Lilliputians are represented by little figures, ingeniously worked, and a Brobdignag baby by a large fat woman. The incident of Gulliver's extinguishing the fire in the Lilliputian capital, which the French authors could not afford to lose, is represented on a drop curtain, as a sacrifice to decency, which is displayed throughout an entire entr'acte.

—A destitute father in St. Louis had not enough money to procure a coffin for his dead child. So taking the body in his arms, he carried it a long distance to the cemetery, but on arriving there discovered that he had neglected to obtain a burial certificate, and was compelled to retrace his steps and repeat his sad journey, carrying his dead child all the way.

—The aged Princess Potemkin went to make a call of congratulation upon the Grand Duchess Eugenie, of Russia, who is to be married this month. She was hoisted up by a lift to the apartments of the bride, and just as the Grand Duke Nicholas extended his hand to assist her out of the machine, the ropes broke, and royalty rattled down to the ground, breaking its wrist and bumping itself severely.

—A nice elopement was planned the other day between a St. Louis belle and a dry goods clerk, who was unable to win the approval of her cruel father. At the romantically early hour of five in the morning the couple had seated themselves in the cars and assumed the appropriate attitude of confidence and affection, when the little scheme was foiled by the appearance of the stern parent, who remorselessly carried off the bride, all tears and hysterics, vowing eternal constancy to her checkmated, though not wasted, lover.

—A few weeks ago a meeting of the Central Committee for the administration of relief among the mining population was held at the Town Hall, Truro, England. The reports from the various sub-committees showed that the distress was very fast increasing, and that largely increased funds would be requisite to meet the claims for relief. However, a motion to advertise in the Times for subscriptions from the country at large, was rejected, the majority of the Committee being of the opinion that a further appeal should first be made to Cornwall. The amount in hand was reported to be £1,700. Grants were made to the extent of £247.

—A German telegraph operator received information last month that he was one of the heirs of an East India millionaire recently deceased; whereupon he borrowed large sums of money, took his family to Vienna to live and threw his thalers about in princely style. But in the height of his enjoyment the information came that it was all a mistake, and that he had no claim upon the inheritance. Maddened by the sudden overthrow of his hopes, the morning after the receipt of the fatal intelligence, he strangled and shot his wife, beat out the brains of his infant, shot his two elder children, and empted the last charge of his pistol into his own brains.

—A curious study of character is afforded in the various replies which were sent to the Canada imposter, "Miss Minnie L. Pury," who has been victimizing persons all over the States with her tale of loveliness in distress. A Chicago gentleman sent her $80, with a most fervid letter, telling her to come right on, that he would meet her at the depot, etc. A New Yorker who was less demonstrative, sent only $10, and asked for her photograph before he committed himself to further advances. A Boston man thinks there must have been a mistake, that the letter had evidently got into the wrong envelope; says that he had unsuccessfully endeavored to find the right owner and that he did not consider it improper to offer her—his sympathy.

—The fluctuation in the value of early editions of Shakspeare is amusingly illustrated by the following observations of Steevens, which occur in his edition of 1785: "An ancient quarto was sold for sixpence; and the folios 1623 and 1632, when first printed, could not have been raised higher than at ten shillings each. Very lately one and two guineas have been paid for a quarto; the first folio is usually valued at seven or eight; but what price may be expected for it hereafter is not very easy to be determined, the conscience of Mr. Fox, bookseller, Holborn, having lately permitted him to ask no less than two guineas for two leaves out of a mutilated copy of that impression, though he had several almost equally defective in his shop. The second folio is commonly rated at two or three guineas." What would Steevens have thought of Mr. Fox if he could have foreseen that £105 would have been publicly offered for three leaves only of one of the quarto editions? The first folio, valued in 1785 at seven or eight guineas, now realizes from £400 to £500, if in a perfect, genuine state.

Dr. Sargent's Diuretic Pills

Are very properly called

"BACK-ACHE PILLS,"

Because whenever the Kidneys, Bladder, etc., are affected, the pain is always felt in the small of the back, sometimes extending along the groin, which symptoms are often mistaken for Rheumatism, and the ordinary remedies for Rheumatic affections such as Plasters, Liniments, &c., are of no avail.

DR. SARGENT'S BACK-ACHE PILLS

Strike at the root of such diseases, by removing the inflammation and stimulating the organs to a healthy action. The patient is relieved from all weakness and pain. Hundreds who have suffered from these troubles can testify to the wonderful efficacy of these pills.

Sold by all Druggists.

Sugar coated, price 50 cents per box.

Debility and Emaciation

Both result from the lack of ability to convert the food into nutriment. How necessary, then, for those suffering from these alarming symptoms to immediately resort to a remedy that will strengthen the stomach and digestive organs. For, as soon as this desirable object has been accomplished, the health improves, and the patient resumes his usual personal appearance. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS have attained a world-wide popularity in such cases, and have been proven the best and safest means of removing constipation, toning the stomach, giving energy to the liver, and relieving every symptom of nervousness and depression of spirits. Its cheering and beneficial effects are highly spoken of by thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health. No restorative in the annals of medicine has attained the same popularity in the short space of time it has been before the public, or has won the high endorsements accorded to this excellent tonic. Many other preparations [illegible] and restoratives, have been introduced and have perished one by one, while the popularity of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS continues to increase, and it is now recognized as a standard household medicine. The success which attends the use of the Bitters evinces at once its virtues in all cases of debility and diseases of the stomach. Certificates almost without number have been published, attesting its truly miraculous power in removing these painful and fearful diseases. And at this time it seems idle to do more than call attention to this great remedy of the age, in order to awaken public attention to its excellence. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases and it is therefore worthy of the consideration of all.

The GAZETTE will keep at the State Capital, during the entire session, an intelligent and faithful correspondent, who will promptly report the proceedings by mail and telegraph.

It is the only political journal of Pittsburgh which faithfully reflects and steadily advocates the principles held by the Union Republican Party, and interpreted by a loyal Congress.

It gives as much reading matter as any paper sold at twelve dollars per annum, while its price is but eight, being the cheapest as well as the largest newspaper in the Commonwealth.

With the enlargement, every department has been strengthened. The high character of its editorial columns will be maintained, and all questions of public importance will be fearlessly discussed.

The news department will be kept up to the requirements of the day, and in condensed items will faithfully mirror all the transactions worthy of note of the City, State, Country and world at large, and maintain for the GAZETTE the reputation of a live, enterprising and first class family and commercial newspaper.

Ample space has been reserved for market reports, which can at all times be relied upon as correct, as the current quotations for manufactures, farm products, cattle, &c., &c., are daily gathered from actual sales, by faithful and efficient reporters.

The river news is collected with care, and will prove a very interesting feature of the GAZETTE.

The financial news department has been placed in charge of an able and experienced banker, who will render it quite an attractive and useful specially to bankers, brokers and business men generally.

The religious department will receive the attention due its importance, and will be so conducted as to be pleasing and readable to members of all religious denominations.

The agricultural, art, science, literary, personal and other departments of the paper will be conducted in a manner which will prove satisfactory to the reader.

TERMS OF THE DAILY GAZETTE.

Three Months	$2.00.
Six Months	4.00.
One Year	8.00.

Delivered in Pittsburgh, Allegheny and all the adjacent Boroughs for 15 cents per week, payable to Carriers.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

The WEEKLY GAZETTE has been enlarged to the same size as the Daily, and is now the largest, cheapest and best weekly family newspaper in the State. It should be in the house of every farmer, mechanic and business man. It gives each week forty solid columns of current news by telegraph and mail, the leading editorials of the daily, and a choice selection of literary and scientific items, together with everything important pertaining to the world of politics. Its agricultural columns will be edited in such a manner as to find favor with the farmer and gardener. The market reports of the WEEKLY GAZETTE are by common consent acknowledged to be the standard authority for both buyers and sellers, and in commercial circles in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and Western Virginia are without equal. The files of the GAZETTE are used exclusively by the Civil Courts of Allegheny county, as reference in important issues, to determine the ruling prices in the markets at the time of the business transaction in dispute.

Our Agents will favor us by getting up their clubs at once, and not allowing their present ones to expire, as we are anxious that none of our readers should be deprived of a week's news. Additions to clubs can be made at any time, at yearly rates. Postmasters and Merchants are requested to act as Agents.

TERMS FOR THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

Single Subscriber	$1.50.
Clubs of Five	1.25.
Clubs of Ten	1.15.

Madame LOUISA KAPP YOUNG,
The very celebrated tragic Prima Donna, especially engaged for the coming season in New York, will make her first appearance in Pittsburgh.
SIGNORA MARIETTA GAZZANIGA,
(Marchionessa di Malaspina,)
The renowned Dramatic Prima Donna, will make her first appearance in Grand Opera since her great triumphs in this city a few seasons since.
Miss MINNIE HAUCK,
Prima Donna Leggiera Assoluta.
This charming young American Prima Donna has covered herself with laurels this season. She adds another and a brilliant Star to the Constellation which America has given to the world of art. In addition to her regular repertoire, in which she has greatly distinguished herself, Miss HAUCK will essay in Pittsburgh this season the ROLE of MARGUERITE in German, in conjunction with Joseph Hermanns as MEPHISTOPHELES.
SIGNORA ANTOINETTA RONCONI,
Prima Donna Leggiera.
SIGNORA NATALI TESTA,
Prima Donna Contralto,
Whose great Vocal and Histrionic excellence give her foremost position among Dramatic Contraltos. The repertoire selected presents Signora Testa in several of her greatest impersonations.
SIGNORA FREDERICA RICARDI.
SIGNOR EMILIO PANCANI,
His first appearance in Pittsburgh.
The very renowned PRIMO TENORE, justly celebrated as the most pure and scholastic artist since the construction of the Academies. Signor Pancani, in addition to his usual repertoire, will appear this season in his famous impersonation of Rossini's OTHELLO.
SIGNOR RAMIERI BARAGLI,
Primo Tenore Leggiero,
His first appearance in Pittsburgh.
SIGNOR GIORGIO RONCONI,

SIGNOR FERNANDO BELLINI,
The popular baritone, whose superb voice, admirable presence and impassioned style have justly made him one of the greatest favorites of the American lyric stage. Signor Bellini has never appeared to such advantage as in the memorable repertoire selected for this season.
SIGNOR GUISEPPE ANTONUCCI,
Primo Basso Cantata.
Relieved by the superabundant force of artists from the intensely [illegible] and dramatic roles, Signor Antonucci's noble organ is heard to the highest possible advantage in the majestic music of Mozart and Rossini, while his impressive and dignified mien gives an importance to his repertoire unknown.
SIGNOR ENRICO TESTA,
Primo Tenore Leggiero.
SIGNOR NICOLI BARILLI,
SIGNOR BANFI.
SIGNOR RICARDI.
M. AMATI DUBREUL,
and
JOSEPH HERMANNS,
The Popular Basso gives this season his famous impersonation of Mephistopheles, in Gounod's Faust.
THEODORE HABELMANN,

Was never better. The means so far provided for construction have proved ample, and there is no lack of funds for the most vigorous prosecution of the enterprise. These means are divided into four classes:

1.—United States Bonds,

Having thirty years to run, and bearing six per cent. currency interest, at the rate of $16,000 per mile for 517 miles on the Plains; then at the rate of $48,000 per mile for 150 miles through the Rocky Mountains; then at the rate of $32,000 per mile for the remaining distance, for which the United States takes a SECOND LIEN as security. The interest on these Bonds is paid by the United States government, which also pays the Company one-half the amount of its bills to money for transporting its freight, troops, mails, &c. The remaining half of these bills is placed to the Company's credit, and forms a sinking fund which may finally discharge the whole amount of this lien.

2.—First Mortgage Bonds.

By its charter the Company is permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to the same amount as the bonds issued by the Government, and no more, and only as the road progresses. The Trustees for the Bondholders are the Hon. E. D. Morgan U. S. Senator from New York, and the Hon. Oakes Ames, member of the U. S. House of Representatives, who are responsible for the delivery of these Bonds to the Company, in accordance with the terms of the law.

3.—The Land Grant.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company has a land grant or absolute donation from the government of 12,800 acres to the mile on the line of the road, which will not be worth less than $1.50 per acre, at the lowest valuation.

4.—The Capital Stock.

The authorized capital of the Union Pacific Railroad Company is $100,000,000, of which $8,500,000 have been paid on the work already done.

THE MEANS SUFFICIENT TO BUILD THE ROAD.

Contracts for the entire work of building 914 miles of first-class railroad west from Omaha comprising much of the most difficult mountain work, and embracing every expense except surveying, have been made with responsible parties, (who have already finished over 540 miles,) at the average rate of sixty-eight thousand and fifty-eight dollars ($68,058) per mile. This price includes all necessary shops for construction and repairs of cars, depots, stations, and all other incidental buildings, and also locomotives, passenger, baggage and freight cars, and other requisite rolling stock to an amount that shall not be less than $5,000 per mile. Allowing the cost of the remaining one hundred and eighty-six of the eleven hundred miles assumed to be built by the Union Pacific Company to be $90,000 per mile,

The Total Cost of Eleven Hundred Miles will be as Follows:

914 miles, at $68,058	$62,205,012
186 miles, at $90,000	16,740,000
Add discount on bonds, surveys, &c.	4,500,000
Amount	$83,445,012

As the U. S. Bonds are equal to money, and the Company's own First Mortgage Bonds have a ready market, we have as the

Available Cash Resources for Building Eleven Hundred Miles:

U. S. Bonds	$29,328,000
First Mortgage Bonds	29,328,000
Capital Stock paid in on the work now done	8,500,000
Land Grant, 14,080,000 acres, at $1.50 per acre	21,120,000
Total	$88,276,000

The Company have ample facilities for supplying any deficiency that may arise in means for construction. This may be done wholly or in part by additional subscriptions to the Capital Stock.

Earnings of the Company.

At present the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue, if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and, as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a GOVERNMENT WORK, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's

First Mortgage Bonds

Are offered for the present at NINETY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. lower than United States Stocks. They pay

Six Per Cent in Gold,

Or OVER NINE PER CENT. upon the investment, and have thirty years to run before maturity. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

TOO LATE I STAYED.

BY ROBERT WILLIAM SPENCE.

Too late I stayed—forgive the crime!
 Unheeded flew the hours.
How noiseless falls the foot of Time
 That only treads on flowers!

And who, with clear account, remarks
 The ebbings of his glass,
When all its sands are diamond sparks,
 That dazzle as they pass

Ah! who to sober measurement
 Time's happy swiftness brings,
When birds of paradise have lent
 Their plumage to his wings!

—A man named Higlin, in Philadelphia, loved a maiden who scorned him. On Monday morning about two o'clock Higlin went to the front door of the maiden's house, and knocking, asked Mary "Will you have me?" Receiving no answer he shot himself with a pistol. On Monday afternoon Mary visited him in the hospital, and told him he was a fool to shoot himself for any girl, and behaved altogether in such a heartless manner that Higlin is going to get well out of pure lack of sympathy.

MISCELLANEOUS.

DR. J. SARGENT'S

FAMILY MEDICINES.

DR. JOHN SARGENT'S

Anti-Dyspeptic and Liver Pills,

A CERTAIN CURE FOR

Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Bilious Attacks, Jaundice, Sick Head-Ache, Colds, Costiveness, &c.

THE EXTRAORDINARY AND increasing demand for my ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS, has induced me to make them more public, in order that their usefulness may be more extensive, and would earnestly beg of those who have tried other medicines and not experienced the relief they anticipated, to try, for once, SARGENT'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS. There are no other Pills yet compounded which have given such universal satisfaction, nor do any other Pills meet the requirements of the household as do these.

I cannot, of course, enumerate the diseases for which these Pills are beneficial, but whenever a cathartic is necessary, they will effect a speedy and permanent cure. They remove from the blood all corrupt humors, which are always the cause of the disease; they open those excretory vessels which empty into the bowels; they give a healthy action to the liver, enabling it to throw off all corrupt humors; they promote the secretion of bile, aid digestion, purify the blood, and will, in a short time, restore the body to a state of sound health.

DYSPEPSIA.—This distressing malady—so prevalent in our country—is caused by a want of tone in the stomach, the usual symptoms of which are as follows: a pain or uneasiness upon pressure below the sternum or breast bone, sometimes attended with sour eructation (water brash or heart-burn,) a disposition to vomit, flushes of heat preceding from the stomach, instantly circulating through the whole system; loss of memory; a variable, uncertain appetite; great depression of spirits, inclining to melancholy; weariness and great antipathy to exercise.

It is seldom that all the above symptoms are found in the same patient at one time; any of them, therefore, is a sufficient indication of the presence of the disease and need of this medicine.

DR. SARGENT'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS, never fail in curing this disease, when taken according to the directions.

I attach a few of the many certificates I could give in such a form as I hope will be satisfactory; but all the certificates I could publish will not inspire half the confidence that one trial will give.

FROM DR. JOHN BUTLER.

LOWELLVILLE, TRUMBULL Co., O.—DR. J. SARGENT—Dear Sir: I regret your want of attention in keeping me supplied with your Anti-Dyspeptic and Liver Pills; they sell so fast in my drug store I have been using them in my practice also, with the best consequences. I find them the most efficient of any pills I have ever used. I have been frequently astonished at the large amount of bile removed by so small a quantity of pills given. I request you to send me a fresh supply immediately, as I have been sometime without. JOHN BUTLER, M. D.

STEUBENVILLE, OHIO.—DR. SARGENT—I write to request you to send me a box of your Anti-Dyspeptic Pills by mail. I have not been able to get them since I left Allegheny. I cannot do without them; they have done me so much more good than any other medicine I ever used. I hope you will send some down to our druggist, so that I can get them when I want. I am sure they will sell fast if known. Your compliance with the above will oblige yours, respectfully,

JANE WARLOW.

ROCK POINT, BEAVER CO., PA., February 21, 1866—DR. SARGENT—Dear Sir: After suffering for two years with Liver Complaint, attended with bad cough, and trying several remedies, I was induced to try your pills, which relieved me immediately, and I take pleasure in recommending them to all suffering from these complaints. Very truly, yours, D. D. MORLEY.

ROCHESTER, PA., 1867.—DR. SARGENT—I consider that I owe my life to the use of your pills. Before I began to use them I was going down very fast. My physician had done all he could, and I still got worse; but when I began to take your pills I got better, and I have no need of the doctor. I am now seventy-five years of age.

ABRAHAM WALKER.

This is to certify that I have used Dr. Sargent's Liver Pills in my family for the last two years, and I consider them the best medicine I know of.

J. M. DEVINNY.

New Brighton, Pa., July 1, 1867.

DR. SARGENT'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC AND LIVER PILLS can be had of all Druggists—both sugar coated and plain. Be sure and call for Dr. Sargent's Anti-Dyspeptic and Liver Pills, and take no other.

DR. SARGENT'S

COUGH SYRUP.

An Old Preparation for the complete cure of COUGHS, COLDS, INFLUENZA, CROUP, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, ASTHMA, QUINSY, PHTHISIC, ACUTE AND CHRONIC BRONCHITIS, NIGHT SWEATS, BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS, AND ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, THROAT AND CHEST.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP contains nothing injurious, but can be taken by the smallest infant with perfect safety. It does not dry up a cough as most of the quack preparations do, thereby leaving the cause of the disease, but loosens the phlegm from the mucous surface of the Bronchial tubes, and assists its expectoration, at the same time allaying the cough and relieving all pain from the chest and lungs.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP is of incalculable benefit in Whooping Cough, subduing it in a few minutes, and specially effecting its radical cure; and for Croup or Hives it is the most efficient and reliable remedy ever yet discovered—one dose taken according to directions often saving the life of the child.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine. Buy a bottle and give it a trial.

DR. JOHN SARGENT'S

Diuretic or Back-ache Pills,

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE

KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

These Pills have now been before the public in this neighborhood for upwards of thirty two years, during which time they have been eminently successful in the removal and cure of these dangerous and troublesome diseases, which often baffle the skill of the best Physicians. This fact is well attested by the number of wonderful cures they have effected. Some of long standing. A sense of duty and the urgent request of those who have experienced the beneficial effects of the medicine, impels me to make it more generally useful, by giving it a much wider circulation. Believing that there is no other medicine published for these complaints that can be carried to every man's door without the aid of a physician; and it is a well known fact that there are thousands who are either too far removed from or are unable to procure the aid of one who will be of service to them.

The disease commonly called Back-ache, and to which these Pills are peculiarly applicable, is found to exist in the aged or infirm, the laborious and the sedentary. It is caused by obstructions or chronic inflammation of the kidneys, ureter, bladder, &c., and is known by a deep-seated pain in the small of the back, sometimes extending round the abdomen; or by a dull, heavy, or numbing pain, extending from the back down the lower extremity of the right abdomen to the inner part of the thigh. Great difficulty is experienced in voiding the urine, and many persons afflicted with this troublesome complaint are unable to endure violent exercise; many, when stooping, have danger in assuming an erect position. Having had numerous opportunities for forty years of testing the virtue and efficacy of this medicine, and with the advice of those who have experienced the good effects of it, I now respectfully submit it to the public, believing that it will be generally beneficial. The few certificates I publish are from this immediate neighborhood, and can be referred to at any time.

CERTIFICATES.

SIR—This is to inform you that I was very much afflicted with violent pain in the back, and great difficulty in voiding urine. I was recommended by Mr. McClintock to take some of your Diuretic Pills, which I did, and was perfectly cured, and I have not felt any of the complaint since, being eighteen months. JOHN STEWART.

MERCER COUNTY.

DR. SARGENT—SIR: I have to inform you that I believe I owe my life to taking some of your Pills. I have been taking medicine for several days from my physician without effect, being confined to bed and in great agony, when my husband applied to you and was told by you that I had the gravel. I took the first dose as you directed, and experienced relief, and my disorder left me after taking the remainder.

MARGARET BEATY.

ALLEGHENY.

DR. SARGENT—I was for a long time afflicted with what I thought to be rheumatism in my back, so that when I stooped down I could scarcely right myself again. I was advised to try your Pills, which cured me, and I have not felt it since. I have since given a great many away to others, who have found the same benefit.

J. WILLIAMSON.

CROWN'S BOTTOM INN.

SIR—I was for a long time afflicted with a pain in my back. I was advised by Mr. Williamson to try your Pills. He gave me some, which completely cured me. I have since obtained two boxes, and gave them to others in our town with the same effect, and if you had charged two dollars for them I would have paid it cheerfully.

LEWIS HUMISTON.

AKRON, OHIO.

SIR—I have been afflicted with the complaint described in your papers for the last five years, during which time I have tried everything I could hear of without effect, till I met with your Pills. I have now taken half a box, and want more to continue taking them, as I feel better now than I have for four years, and I have no doubt the next box will cure me.

J. MILLER.

ALLEGHENY.

SIR—I have been troubled with back ache for four or five years, so that I could not rise up or lie down without pain. I took part of a box of your pills, which completely cured me, and I have been at perfect ease ever since. I do, therefore, confidently recommend them to others.

PATEY CRUMPTION.

ALLEGHENY.

DR. SARGENT—SIR: I take this opportunity to state that your Diuretic Pills are the most effectual medicine for the back ache I ever met with. I can confidently recommend them from experience.

A GREAT FAMILY CONVENIENCE.

A new and novel arrangement for having

HOT WATER BOILERS

attached to the back end of common cook stoves, so that the waste blaze which goes up the stove-pipe heats all the water needed in an ordinary sized family, by passing the blaze directly through the boiler, which sits over the pipe hole of the stove. This new arrangement can be put on to any No. 7, 8 or 9 common Cooking Stove, of any manufacture. Any person having a TRIUMPH, VICTORY, BLACK OAK BEAUTY or UNION STOVE, or almost any other Cook Stove made in the Union, can have Boilers attached to their Stoves, including the Attachment, the Boiler and Lids, and Bibb Cock, for the moderate cost of SEVEN DOLLARS, by applying to

SABBATH SCHOOL INSTITUTE.

MORNING SESSION.

The Sabbath School Teachers' Institute, of the United and Reformed Presbyterian Churches of Allegheny county, met in the Second United Presbyterian Church, Sixth street, (Rev. T. H. Hanna) yesterday morning at ten o'clock. Rev. W. J. Reid, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, called the Institute to order, and moved that the officers of the Sabbath School Teachers' Union of Pittsburgh and vicinity act as the officers of the Institute until a permanent organization shall have been effected. Professor J. A. Macrum and Mr. F. R. McCutcheon acted as President and Secretary, respectively.

OPENING EXERCISES.

Rev. John Douglas, D. D., was called upon by the President to conduct the opening religious exercises. Rev. Douglas gave out a portion of the thirty-fourth Psalm, after the singing of which he read a few selections from Scripture, and then led the Institute in prayer.

The meeting was then thrown open for voluntary prayers and remarks. Short addresses and prayers were then made by Revs. W. J. Reid, T. H. Hanna and A. H. Elder.

On motion of Mr. Reid, a committee was appointed on permanent organization. The Chairman appointed the following as members of said committee: Revs. W. J. Reid, R. H. Body, J. W. Sproull and Messrs. G. Reed and W. H. Knox.

INTRODUCTORY ADDRESS.

In accordance with the plan laid down in the programme, Rev. T. H. Hanna delivered the "Introductory Address." He extended a cordial welcome to all the Teachers and Superintendents present. He welcomed them not only for their personal worth, but for the work's sake in which they were engaged. He spoke of the greatness and importance of the Sabbath School cause. The object of the Institute was two-fold: First, for the improvement of the teachers themselves, and then to tone up public opinion on the importance of the work of Sabbath School instruction.

PERMANENT OFFICERS.

The Committee on Permanent Organization reported as follows:

President—Rev. John G. Brown, D. D.

Vice Presidents—Revs. J. R. Kerr, Thos. Johnston, and Messrs. Wm. Wills, Francis Jamison and John Montgomery.

Secretaries—Wm. S. Owens, Frank Patterson and the reporters of the press.

Corresponding Secretary—T. J. Gillespie.

Treasurer—Hr. Hugh McMasters.

Business Committee—Rev. J. B. Clarke, D.D.; Messrs. John Morton, T. H. Rabe, W. L. Stevenson and Rev. John Patterson.

The programme prepared by the Committee of Arrangements was adopted by the Institute.

On motion, Rev. J. T. Cooper, D.D., of Philadelphia, and other ministers and Sabbath School teachers who were present from a distance were invited to sit as Consultative members.

Rev. J. Witherspoon then presented the following topic: Sabbath Schools. Their history, present condition, extension, &c.

Mr. Witherspoon said that Sabbath Schools, or some kind of catechetical instruction, could be traced to the very commencement of Christianity. Martin Luther established schools in Germany for the religious instruction of the young on the Sabbath day. He then traced the history of Sabbath Schools to the days of Robert Raikes, and gave an account of their organization in the United States of America.

This topic was then discussed by Revs. A. M. Milligan, Thomas Johnson, Prof. Macrum and others.

The Institute is largely attended by teachers from both cities and surrounding neighborhood. The morning session was quite interesting.

After prayer by Dr. Cooper, adjourned to meet in the afternoon at half-past two o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Institute met at half past two o'clock. Rev. W. A. McKenzie, of Sewickley, conducted the devotional exercises, which were continued for half an hour. Mr. McKensie gave out the 145th psalm, long metre, beginning,

> "O Lord, thou art my God and King, > Thee will I magnify and praise;"

and then led in prayer for children destitute of religious instruction. After singing the 67th psalm, Rev. Jos. R. Kerr led in prayer. Another psalm was sung, after which Rev. J. B. Clark, D. D., led in prayer.

At the conclusion of the religious exercises, the Institute proceeded to the consideration of the question laid down in the programme; "How are destitute children to be gathered into the Sabbath School?"

In the absence of Rev. J. C. Boyd, who was expected to open the discussion, Rev. A. M. Milligan made the opening speech. He urged the importance of bringing the destitute children into the Sabbath School in consideration of the unspeakable value of the soul. In obedience to the command of the Master they should go out into the lanes and alleys of the city, taking candy in the pocket, if they wish—or a little picture, or anything that will attract the child's attention.

The subject was then thrown open for discussion by the delegates generally. Dr. Brown said they should not attempt to grasp too much, lest they might lose all. The attention should be fixed upon one or two individuals, and all the energies of the laborer should be concentrated on these until they are secured. Then, as Mr. Milligan had expressed it, the Sabbath School should be made like a rat trap, so that when a child gets in, it cannot get out.

Rev. Thomas Johnston thought that in order to bring in the destitute children there should be an efficient organization of the Sabbath School. There should be a good Superintendent—an organized system of visitation, and a liberal distribution of rewards.

Rev. C. A. Dickey said this topic was one of the most important on the programme. Children should be gathered according to the Master's rule, "in the arms"—tenderly and affectionately.

Mr. John S. Sands said it was very well to gather them in tenderly and affectionately, but they must be gathered in "quickly."

Rev. W. J. Reid thought they should have a good place to put the children when they are gathered. He believed the best place was the Mission Sabbath School.

Miss Nim F. Hecron, of the Second U. P. Mission Sabbath School, introduced her infant class and gave a model lesson. The children were led, in concert, in prayer by Miss Herron, and then united singing a psalm. The sin of "lying" was first illustrated. The children were taught neither to "speak," "think" nor "act" a lie. The sin of "swearing" was next illustrated. Taking the name of God in vain is swearing. It is contrary to the commandment, "Thou shall not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain."

Remarks upon the lesson were then made by Rev. Thos. Johnston, Rev. Jos. R. Kerr, Rev. W. J. Reid, and others.

The question drawer was then opened. The first question was, "How should unruly and indolent scholars be managed without expelling them?" James McCandless, Esq., answered the best way was to give them employment.

"Does the Sabbath school chill the efforts of parents?" Answered, if conducted aright it will stimulate them to their work of parental instruction.

"How may the attendance of teachers be secured at the Institutes?" By making them interesting and profitable, and giving due publicity of the time of their meeting.

"Should all reading classes have the same lesson?" Pending the discussion of this question the Institute adjourned after singing the doxology and the pronouncing of the benediction by Rev. J. R. Kerr.

EVENING SESSION.

Assembled again at 7½ o'clock. Proceeded to devotional exercises, Rev Dr. Cooper, of Philadelphia, presided. The Assembly singing the 20th Psalm:

> Jehovah hear thee in the day
> When trouble He doth send;
> And let the name of Jacob's God
> Thee from all ill defend.

Dr. Cooper then led in prayer. After singing another portion of psalmody, the Institute was led in prayer by Thomas McCance, Esq.

The hour for devotional exercises having expired the Institute proceeded to the discussion of the "Qualifications and duties of Superintendents." The opening address was made by Rev. Thomas Johnston, of Tallycavey. Mr. Johnston specified five things as necessary qualifications in a Sabbath School Superintendent: 1. A good reputation, 2. Genuine piety, 3. Heart. 4. Aptness to teach. 5. The art of governing.

As to the duties of a Superintendent, he said:

1. A Superintendent should come to his work voluntarily, without any vote of the congregation.

2. He should come to the School thoroughly prepared. In the opening exercises his prayer should be short. The prayer, reading and psalm should all bear on the lesson of the day.

Rev. J. B. Clark, D.D., then made an address on "the qualifications and duties of teachers." The first qualification is piety. The second is earnest consecration to the work. As to the duties, the teacher should make the lesson a subject of deep and earnest thought. Should study human nature. Should be an individual of fervent and habitual prayer. Teachers should be professors of religion. Teachers should be punctual always at the post of duty, when duty calls them. Lastly, every teacher should have a high and noble aim—to lead the children to the Lamb of God.

Mr. A. M. Bole thought there was an additional qualification necessary in a Superintendent. A Superintendent should be possessed of large means, because few congregations contribute as they should to the support of the Sabbath Schools. He believed that some who had not made a public profession of their faith in Christ were teaching efficiently in the Sabbath School.

Rev. Mr. Kelso thought that in regard to qualifications, something might be learned from the State. Those who are applicants for situations as teachers in the Common Schools, must possess certain qualifications. He would not think for a moment of committing his children to the care of one who is not a professor of religion.

Major William Frew said a great many things are expected in a Superintendent which cannot always be found. If the congregations would only do their duty there would soon be many first-class Superintendents, coming up to all the requirements made. The office of Superintendent is one of great responsibility. He never felt so much the responsibility in any other office. The Superintendent should be of cheerful temper and disposition, or else he will chill everything. He should have all the children and teachers clustering around him as the little chicks do around their mother.

Rev. Mr. Kerr was of the opinion that the teacher should get down to the inner, more secret life of the children.

Remarks were made also by Rev. Mr. Boyd, Mr. Macrum and others.

The meeting last evening was very large. The spacious edifice was well filled, about as well as it could be with comfort. The exercises were of the most interesting character.

Rev. John Moore presented the cause of the American Guardian, a Temperance paper published in Philadelphia by Mr. Geo. S. Ferguson.

Adjourned with prayer by Rev. Alex. Calhoun, and pronouncing of the benediction by the President.

The following is the programme for to-day:

Frew. Open Discussion of the above Topics. Question Drawer.

CASE OF LARCENY.

Michael Scahill and John alias "Reddy" Hughes were placed on trial on an indictment charging them with the larceny of a box of tools, or drawing instruments, from the foundry of W. W. Wallace, corner of Cherry and Plum alley, on Christmas morning, when the establishment was destroyed by fire. The instruments, it appeared from the evidence, were seen in the possession of Scahill, who sold them to Wm. Devine for a dollar. One witness, John Kemp, testified he was present at the time of the sale of the instruments, and that while they were being examined, Hughes produced a pair of compasses which he handed to Devine, saying "take these to complete the box." This transpired on the morning after the fire at Wallace's, at a drinking house in the Sixth ward. The instruments were recovered at Devine's house, and having been produced in evidence were identified. It was also proven that they were locked up in a desk, at Wallace's establishment, and the reasonable inference was that they were taken before the fire. For the defense it was contended that Hughes was not present at the time of the transaction between Devine and Scahill, and that Kemp was mistaken, or had falsified, in his statement that Hughes had produced the pair of compasses "to complete the box." One witness testified that he did not see Hughes present at the time, and even if he was present, it was argued that it was not unreasonable to suppose that he (Hughes) had taken the compasses out of the box while being exhibited by Scahill, and returned them when the purchase was made by Devine. As to Scahill, his guilt seemed to be conceded by the counsel, W. D. Moore, Esq.

In opposition to the theory of the defense, Major A. M. Brown, for the prosecution, argued that sufficient had been been elicited to connect Hughes with the larceny, among others the fact of his admission that at the time the fire broke out in Wallace's establishment he and Scahill were in the immediate vicinity; also that he had been employed there, and that after the fire (in the afternoon of the next day) he inquired of one of the employes whether he had lost any tools, adding that he (Hughes) had endeavored to save them. The jury found a verdict of guilty.

ARSON CASE.

Hughes and Scahill were next placed on trial (in the Oyer and Terminer) for setting fire to and causing the destruction of the foundry establishment of W. W. Wallace, on the corner of Plum and Cherry alley, on the morning of the 25th of December (Christmas) last. The circumstance leading to the arrest of defendants was the discovery of the box of instruments (the subject of indictment in the former case,) which was evidently taken from the establishment previous to the fire, causing the presumption that the defendants first plundered and then applied the match to cover up their larceny. Major Brown appeared for the prosecution, and A. G. Cochran and W. D. Moore, Esqs., for the defense.

W. W. Wallace, sworn—My machine shop and foundry, on Cherry alley, in the Tenth ward, were destroyed by fire on Christmas morning last, before daylight; my marble works, adjacent, were partially destroyed; the loss was $50,000; the room in which the fire originated was filled with patterns; in that room there was no fire kept. (Box of instruments shown and identified.) These were in the establishment, in a desk, which was kept locked, and which was entirely consumed; Hughes, one of the defendants, was in my employ about two years ago; discharged him for drunkenness; his father was also in my employ, up to within a few weeks of the time of the fire.

Cross-examined—A stove pipe extended through the pattern room, on the second story, about the center; the fire originated in a corner of the room; have no recollection of the building having been on fire previously.

At the conclusion of the cross-examination of Mr. Wallace, the Court adjourned.

Police Regulations—His Honor, Mayor Blackmore, who has not yet entered into the discharge of the duties pertaining to his office, has received several letters of complaint from various quarters in the city regarding police regulations and protection. Inasmuch as that gentleman has not entered into his duties, such communications will receive no attention unless addressed to the present Mayor, William C. McCarthy. Mr. Blackmore promises to effect a radical reform in police matters as far as he is enabled to do so with the force at his command, and in the future will lend his best exertions toward putting a stop to the nuisances thus far complained of.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The Florences are playing to crowded houses, at this popular place of amusement.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—"Undine," at the Academy of Music, is being well patronized and will only continue during the present week.

ORPHANS' FAIR.—The Orphans' Fair in the basement of the Cathedral will close Saturday night.

GRAND OPERA.—The sale of tickets for the grand opera season commenced yesterday at C. C. Mellor's. The number of tickets sold was immense, and those wishing to take advantage of the unprecedentedly low prices for season tickets must do so immediately, as the sale of season tickets closes Friday evening, and after that time nothing but single tickets will be sold.

HERNANDEZ, the inimitable pantomimist, who has created such a sensation at the Academy of Music in "Undine," will astonish the audience to-night by jumping through the body of a man. Go and see him.

Malicious Mischief.—Peter Y. Haight made information before Alderman McMasters, yesterday, charging Michael Burlbaugh with malicious mischief. Michael, it appears, leased a farm from the prosecutor, in West Deer township, for a term of two years, which time expires this spring. There is a coal pit on the farm, and it is alleged by the prosecutor that when Michael was notified to leave the premises on the first of April next, he went to the coal pit and removed the props and pillars, thereby causing the roof of the pit to fall in. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Larceny of Butter.—Mrs. Mary Smitz was arrested yesterday morning in the market for stealing a pound of butter. She was taken before Alderman Humbert, but the party from whom the butter was taken having recovered it, refused to make an information, and she was discharged. It appears she is a poor widow with a family of five children dependent upon her for support, and at the present high price of butter it is impossible for her to buy it. She resides on Pennsylvania avenue.

Fraternal Affection.—John Robinson made information before Alderman Humbert against Dennis Reagan, charging him with assault and battery on the person of Mrs. Robinson. Robinson, it appears, married a sister of Reagan's, with whom the defendant is not on good terms, and it is alleged that on Tuesday evening he met her on High street near where Robinson resides, knocked her down and otherwise abused her. Reagan was arrested and held for a hearing.

Committed.—Jeremiah and George Ralston, of Worth township, Butler county, Pa., whose arrest we noticed yesterday morning on a charge of illicit distilling, had a hearing yesterday before Commissioner Gamble, who committed them to jail, in default of the required bail, for their appearance at the next term of the United States Court.

John W. Pitteck, opposite the Postoffice sends us the January number of "London Society." This is the English edition, the American reprint having ceased with the year 1867.

—The cause of the arrest of George Francis Train is thus given in a special to the New York Herald from London:

An Englishman named Gee, a fellow passenger of Mr. Train, informed the officers on the tug-boat which boarded the Scotia at Queenstown that Train had said he came to Ireland to organize the Fenians and commence the fight. Train was arrested upon this information. Gee denied giving such information when before the Court. Consul Eastman, at Queenstown, was exceedingly active in Train's behalf. Minister Adams at once saw Lord Stanley, who ordered the release of Train. Lord Stanley disavowed the act on the part of the Government, and stated that the local authorities were solely responsible.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, December 22, 1868.

Gold was steady all day at 139 to 139¾, at which it closed. The amount of cash gold on the market is so large that it will cost 1-16 or 1-32 per cent. per day to carry over balances, so the market is left to its legitimate dealings, and though a temporarily rise may occur speculators will find a better field and better remuneration for their risks in bonds and stocks.

Government securities are much in demand; principal dealers have been securing large lots of Seven Thirties and are now furnished Five Twenties for them, which they hold back, thus creating a scarcity in the market and may name their own prices. In this they have a powerful agent in the large amount of capital seeking temporary employment and in the attempts of some members of Congress at increasing the paper circulation of the country. They find a pretext for this in the stagnation of business and the necessity of alleviating the pressing demands of the lower and middling classes; it is evident, however, if we may judge by the experience of other nations, that this would only aggravate the evil and ruin the trading and laboring classes completely. Trade would sooner revive under a steady contraction, thus forcing a large class of middlemen to turn their attention to productive industry instead of awaiting the good days that will never come again. Contraction of the volume of paper circulation will assist to reduce the price of labor, of rent, of provisions, of property, and lastly, in this instance, at least, and contrary to Adam Smith, national and other securities representing values, and thus restore business and credit to a healthy condition.

The stock market is still higher to-day, and the long predicted rise has set in in full earnest. New York Central has advanced 4 per cent.; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 2; Ft. Wayne, 1, and Ohio & Mississippi, 2.

Mining shares are in good demand.

Gold, 139⅝; 1881's, 110⅝; 5-20s, 1862, 110¼; 1864, 108; 1865, 109½; Consols, 106⅝; 10-40s, 103½; 7-30s, 106⅝.

—From Washington we learn that the Comptroller of the Currency and Secretary of the Treasury have received complaints that the capital of certain National banks was being used in stock speculations, in violation of the national currency act. It is alleged that the officers of the above banks are involving their stability by loaning great sums on fancy railroad stocks at inflated prices. The Secretary has ordered an immediate investigation to be made by the examiners, with a view, if the complaints are well founded, of compelling the banks to comply with the requirements of the national currency act. The defalcation of Loverich, the teller of the City Bank, in consequence of speculations in Rock Island, are said to have precipitated this action. A resolution of inquiry in relation to the subject will also be introduced in Congress.

—The Senate Finance Committee have recently placed upon record their views upon the questions of debt and currency. They state they find no express stipulation upon the part of the United States to pay the five-twenties in coin; but they nevertheless say a coin payment was expressly promised by the Government agents who negotiated the loan and that they were generally taken with the understanding that they were to be paid in coin. Hence the committee conclude that any other kind of payment would be unfair. In regard to legal tender notes, they are of the opinion that no more should be issued until they are convertible into gold and silver.

—We have received a pamphlet addressed to the President of the United States by Mr. Jas. Gallatin, president of one of the N. Y. banks, and well known as an able financier and political economist. The greater part of this document is taken up in exposing the past errors in financial management, and cataloguing the various measures proposed to relieve the country from the consequences of such blunders. Mr. Gallatin proposes to encourage the funding of greenbacks into interest bearing stocks; to renew in a formal manner the promise to redeem the debt only in gold; to issue for gold coin a "specie resumption loan," with the hope of drawing into the Treasury a large amount of gold, and thus preparing the way for specie payments, and to amend the national banking act by providing for a central redemption.

—The Philadelphia Ledger, of Tuesday, says: The demand for money is moderately active, but the supply of capital is fully equal to the wants of borrowers. Call loans are readily obtained on good collaterals at 6@7 per cent., the lower being the prevailing rate for new transactions. The range of discount for strictly first-class commercial paper at short date, is 7@9 per cent. per annum, and selections are made from other good signatures at 10@12 per cent.

—Says the Cincinnati Commercial, of Tuesday: The tendency of the money market has been toward greater closeness, yet for the past two days there has been less activity in discounting than for several previous days. Currency does not increase in volume much, if at all, being as slow as ever in returning from the country, and especially tardy in the payment of debts owing by country merchants. Rates of interest have been steadily maintained at 10@18 per cent., without representing any increased activity in business, in fact, rather the reverse since much of the borrowing is done for the purpose of carrying trade through a period of suspended animation. The greater monetary ease noted in New York tends to foster a speculative spirit there, but so far it has almost wholly been confined to the stock market.

—The following are some of the earnings of some of the Chicago Banks for the six months ending December 31, 1867, as returned to the United States Collector's office:

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, January 22, 1868.

CRUDE—There was again a fair business in crude to-day, the reported sales reaching twelve thousand barrels, in the aggregate, and the most remarkable feature is the fact that it was all bought by one party—the same party bought six thousand barrels yesterday, making in the aggregate, eighteen thousand barrels taken by one refinery in two days. Spot oil is still held at 7¼@7½c, delivered in bulk cars; March and April may be quoted at 7½@7¾c, seller's option, and all the year, buyer's option, at 11½c. Sale of 5000 bbls for March, seller's option, at 7½c; and 5000 and 2000 for April, same option, at 7¾c.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil continues dull but unchanged; we have but a single sale to report, 1000 bbls for February, at 23½c. January is still quoted at 22¾@23c, though there is no oil offering in this market, that we can hear of, for that delivery at these quotations. February may be quoted at 23½c, and March at 24c. While some of our refiners are buying crude pretty freely, they do not propose to sell refined at present prices, for the good reason that there is no margin; and their buying crude may be explained in the fact that they believe that it will not go much lower, while, on the other hand, it might possibly take an upward turn.

ARRIVALS—The following are the arrivals of oil by the Allegheny Valley Railroad:

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, January 22.—For staple styles and cotton goods, the market is more buoyant, some leading commission houses have advanced discounts instead of taking five per cent. off as hitherto. They now allow only 2@3 per cent to New York mills. Bleached Muslins have been advanced to 25c Hills Semper Idem, 4-4 do to 16 and 7-8; do. 14c. Langdon is up to 13c. and a sale of Androscoggin is reported in Boston at 17c. Bleached Muslins are decidedly more active and firmer, but there is nothing to warrant an advance at present, beyond this fact that goods have been selling at unprofitable rates.

Baltimore Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, Jan 22.—Flour is nominally unchanged. Wheat is steady and scarce; Southern red is $2.75@2.85. Corn is firmer; prime yellow, $1.15@1.18; mixed western, $1.17@1.18. Oats is dull at 73@75c. Rye is very dull at $1.48@1.55. Provisions are steady. Bulk Shoulders are 9c for western, loose. Lard is 13½c.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, January 22, 1868.

The general markets are devoid of any new characteristics worthy of special notice. We are still obliged to report dullness as prevailing in nearly every department of trade, but it is to be hoped that we will have a good spring business, and we do not see how it can be otherwise, especially as regards Pittsburgh manufactures, as stocks of all kinds are very much reduced, and there will certainly be an average spring demand.

GROCERIES—There has been rather more activity in the grocery market during the past week, the volume of business, in the aggregate, being a little larger, but, with the exception of a reduction of 25 cents per case on Concentrated Lye, prices have undergone no change. An advance, however, is expected in New Orleans Sugar and Molasses soon as that market is reported "cleaned out." The following are the ruling quotations:

CONCENTRATED LYE—$7,50 per case.

BI CARB SODA—$5 50 per lb.

GRAIN—Wheat is steady but unchanged; we continue to quote at $2,55 for Red, and $2,65 for White, and $2,30@2,35 for No. 1 Spring. Oats in fair demand at 65@66c, on track, and 68@70c, in store. BUTTER—There is a continued good demand for prime to choice Roll Butter, and we have sales reported at 40@43c.

EGGS—Cannot be quoted above 40c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 22, 1868.

MONEY AND GOLD.

Money is easy at 4@6 on call to brokers with little demand from merchants; banks find a difficulty to use their money. Sterling dull at 9⅝@9¾ prime bills. Gold opened at 139, advanced to 139¾, and closed at 139⅝@139¾.

GOVERNMENTS

Are ½ per cent. better: Coupons '81, 110⅝@110¾; do '62, same; do '64, 108⅛; do '65, 108⅝@109¼; do new, 105⅞@106⅛; do '67, 106@106⅛; 10-40s, 103⅛@103⅜; 7-30s, 106⅝@106⅞.

STOCKS.

Transactions are large with an increasing investment demand; no shipment demand, as prices are too high. In railways the speculative demand was resumed this morning, and much higher prices were made on New York Central and Toledo, which touched 131 and 138 respectively. The market off at noon board, but continued active and strong the rest of the day, and closing quotations being much above yesterday's. Tennessee bonds are lower on a rumor that the State had been borrowing money and hypothecating bonds, at the same time allowing parties to sell them to be reimbursed. It is reported that the leading operator in Erie stands heavily short.

M.: Canton, 57½@58; Cumberland, 33@35; Adams Express, 78½@79; Merchants Union, 38@39½; Wells, 46@47; American, 74¼@75; United States, 78½@79; Quicksilver, 20@20½; Mariposa, 8¼; Pacific Mail, 109@109¼; Atlantic Mail, 98@98½; Western Union Telegraph, 37⅞@38; New York Central, 129⅝@129¾; Erie, 75⅝@75⅞; Hudson, 143⅞@145; Harlem, 128@129; Reading, 95⅝@95¾; Ohio Certificates, 33⅛@33¼; Wabash, 45@46; St. Paul, 50½@51¾; St. Paul preferred, 63@66; Michigan Central, 111@112; Michigan Southern, 89@88⅞; Illinois Central, 131¼@132; Pittsburgh, 96⅛@96⅜; Toledo, 108⅝@108¾; Rock Island, 97⅞@97⅞; Northwestern, 60⅝@60¾; Northwestern preferred, 73⅜@73½; Fort Wayne, 102⅝@102¾; Missouri Sixes, 100; Tennessee Sixes, new, 66¾.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather was mild and soft during most of yesterday, but towards evening it became somewhat colder, and we have no doubt it would freeze slightly last night. The river, we presume, remains unchanged, though on this point we cannot speak with certainty, as the marks indicating the stage of water are obscured with ice.

The following boats are now receiving freight, and will leave on the opening of navigation: Kate Robinson, for Cincinnati and Louisville; Messenger and Bellevernon, for St. Louis; Camelia for Nashville, and the Leonidas, to New Orleans.

The following comprises the names of all the boats at the Monongahela wharf: Grey Eagle, Leni Leoti, Columbia, America, Maggie Hays, Bellvernon, Robert Moore, Wauseita, Ida Reese, Leonidas, Camelia, Kate Robinson, Messenger, and New York.

Bill Patterson and Tom Rogers, mates of the Great Republic, got in a muss at Louisville. They beat two citizens badly. Officers boarded the boat at Portland and were let off at New Albany without the mates they intended to make prisoners of.

As will be seen by reference to card, the ship chandlery and boat stores of Messrs. Evans, Gilmore & Dallas and Caldwell & Bro. have been consolidated, the latter having sold their entire stock to the former. Captains Evans and Gilmore are both old and well-known steamboatmen, having been identified with the river interest all their lives, nearly, while our young friend Dallas has grown fat in the business, but, we hope, not lazy. In connection with this notice we must not omit to state that Messrs. E., G. & D. have improved their store lately, having had it overhauled and nicely re-arranged and repainted, both inside and out; and besides, it is well stocked with all kinds of goods pertaining to their line of business.

A telegram from Cairo, under date of Monday, says: "The Great Republic arrived at 5 p. m. with a fine trip and adds all she wants here. Sam. Barr reports passing the Richmond fairly under way."

The towboats Sampson and Hornet passed Memphis on Monday, en route, we presume, for New Orleans.

The Ohio river is gorged with ice at Murraysville. The W. F. Curtis, en route from Nashville to Pittsburgh, passed Louisville on Monday."

When the Norman sunk in White river she was on her down trip, and only had nine bales of cotton, one of which was used to stop the hole in the hull. The Norman tried the Ways at Memphis, but they were too small; the Cairo, Mound City, Paducah and Evansville Ways were preoccupied, and she had to come through to Louisville to try the canal docks.

The pipe connecting the safety-valve with the boiler of the trading boat D. W. Hewitt, blew of last Thursday, in the Lower Mississippi, at Cypress Bend, instantly killing J. Crosby, off Fort Dodge, Iowa, acting salesman. The boat was considerably damaged.

The Cincinnati Commercial says: We record the death of Capt. Philip Pennywit, elsewhere. He built the first steamer that ever plied between Cincinnati and Louisville. The last boat he built was the Thirty-fifth Parallel, completed at Cincinnati before the rebellion, and burned by the rebels in Yazoo Pass to save her capture by the United States soldiers. She was commanded by Capt. Chapman, with Capt. Carter in the office. The latter died two years since. The colors of the steamers will be displayed at half-mast to-day in token of respect to the memory of the deceased.

The Nashville Banner, of Saturday, says: Competition between the boats and railroads continues very spirited. The latter are now forwarding cotton to Cincinnati at $1,25 per bale, all charges included, while the former have reduced their rate to 75 cents per bale, and threaten to go even 50 or 25 cents lower. The Pine Grove departed for Cincinnati with one of the best trips of the season.

We take the following from the Memphis Bulletin: While the Argosy was lying at Donaldsonville, on the morning of the 8th, one of her deck hands, named Charles Fisher, accidentally fell overboard, and was drowned before any assistance could be rendered him.

Capt. Vandergrift informs us that greedy sharks are working their own personal ruin by taking Cincinnati freight at New Orleans at Paper low line, but he preferred to come away with only 75 tons, sooner than take freight at such ruinous rates.

One of the greatest causes of complaint from steamboatmen is the exorbitant wharfage charged here. The Belle Lee, for lying here yesterday, was charged $65. The rate should be reduced and local packets exempted.

A St. Louis telegram, under date of Monday, says: Snowing at intervals since last evening. Weather moderate. Hardly a speck of ice running in the river. Water steadily swelling. The boats engaged last year in the St. Louis and Vicksburg trade, found it unprofitable; the Rubicon will continue in it this year, but the Shreve goes to Fort Benton, and the Ida Handy returns to the Missouri.

A correspondent at Little Rock, under date of 14th, writes here: "Weather cold and river falling. There is now at Fort Smith 10 inches; at Dardenel 18 inches; at Little Rock 24 inches, and at Pine Bluff 26 inches. Government is paying $1 per 100 on freight from St. Louis to Fort Gibson on the Arabian and Tom Stevens, and $2 from here to Gibson on 60 tons, if the boat will sign for it without privileges, but promise to keep it on board until delivered."

The new steamer Gov. Allen went from New Orleans to Donaldsonville in five and a half hours.

The Cumberland is falling, with not over 8 feet on the shoals Sunday.

The Emperor, from Memphis, has 700 bales cotton.

The St. Patrick, in the Evansville and Memphis trade, will hereafter extend her trips to Louisville.

Captain Richardson, formerly of the R. E. Lee, has purchased an interest in the Governor Allen, and will probably assume command.

The Louisville and Tennessee River packets are now taking pine lumber in payment for freight bills—greenbacks on the Tennessee being "non est comestibus."
